

Keep Frank A. Brooks In Office
In times like these, many of us find it difficult to remain narrow partisans; we instinctively seek out men of character, independence and courage. If they belong to our own party, well and good; if not, we are inclined to vote for them, anyway.

Frank A. Brooks of Concord, the oldest veteran in point of service on the Governor's Council, represents this district, which is the Third. For eight consecutive years he has given us all, regardless of party, capable, tireless and loyal service. He is a typical Yankee of the highest type, thrifty, wise and human throughout. What a God-send it would be if all our public servants and all our candidates for office were of the same stripe.

Now, in 1940, Frank Brooks had three opponents in the G. O. P. primary: two men from Lowell and one from Newton, Henry L. Morrison. Their combined vote, however, was barely more than one-half the vote cast for Councillor Brooks. In the subsequent election in November, Brooks won over the Democrat by some 22,000. This year our Councillor again has three opponents: two Lowell men and a lady from Boston, Miss Marian C. Nichols, whom I may see fit to discuss at a later date. Barring accidents, Frank Brooks will be renominated and re-elected without much trouble.

One of the liveliest scraps in the Republican primary will be the five-cornered contest for State Treasurer. Assuming that Fred Burrell of Medford, who once held that office, is permanently removed from the picture, the leading candidate is probably State Senator Laurence Curtis of the Back Bay. Then we have a former State Senator, Sybil H. Holmes of Brookline, who was defeated when she came up for reelection, former Rep. Richard E. Johnston of Boston, who has been a young Republican for several decades and who has, furthermore, been on the wrong side of several important G. O. P. contests. Last, and least known, probably, is Edgar A. French of Scituate Harbor. I am still searching for some one in this locality who has the pleasure of knowing the gentleman. As of today, I would pick Senator Curtis to win the nomination. More later on.

Kelly vs. Putnam

The Democrats are going to have a grand squabble among themselves. It might be smart for them to nominate popular Mayor Roger Putnam of Springfield rather than the pugnacious and irritating Kelly. However, Kelly has already taken two likings for the gubernatorial nomination and figures that he may win the third time. Also, Mayor Putnam was given the "kiss of death" by the Democratic State Committee, which very obviously preferred Putnam to Kelly. This may result in giving Kelly the nomination. Too bad for the Democracy. Putnam would corral many more G. O. P. and independent votes than would Kelly. It is a good break for Governor Saltonstall.

Crocker vs. Lodge

Speaking frankly, the primary contest between Senator Henry Cabot Lodge and Courtenay Crocker has started rather tamely. Mr. Crocker is severely handicapped by being relatively unknown. The bulk of his excellent record was made early in the century and the average man on the street knows nothing about it. Furthermore, our Junior Senator has declined to co-operate with him in debate. The Senator had nothing to gain by speaking from the same platform, or the same radio station, and there was a definite possibility that he might lose prestige. Mr. Crocker has, without any question, some very good ammunition to fire at his opponent, who might suddenly find himself in a hole, without his astute friend and counsellor to guide him. And so, in my opinion, the Sena-

Tunnel To Be Constructed Under City As Continuation Of Conduit From Quabbin

A tunnel is to be constructed under the City of Newton as a continuation of the conduit from the Quabbin and Wachusett Reservoirs. The Metropolitan Water Commission which is in charge of the project will sink shafts at strategic points in the city and the tunnel work will proceed simultaneously in both directions at the foot of each shaft. The original plans called for the sinking of only one shaft in Newton, the location being on land owned by the Newton Cemetery.

Standish Green Is Promoted

Standish Green, son of Colonel Fred M. Green of Newtonville, has been promoted to the rank of technical sergeant in the United States Marine Corps. It was announced this week by Marine officials at the Oakland, Calif., Naval Reserve Aviation Base, where Green is stationed as an instructor.

Before he enlisted in the Marine Corps in 1934 at a New York City recruiting station, the 28-year-old Newtonville Marine had served with the coast artillery of the United States Army, the branch of the service with which his father is connected. Sgt. Green's experience in the Corps include stations at Quantico, Va.; Puerto Rico, the Virgin Islands and San Diego, Calif.

In 1938 Sgt. Green was discharged from the Corps but immediately re-enlisted at San Francisco. His present status is that of non-commissioned officer in charge of all drills for student naval aviation pilots, as well as all naval enlisted personnel at the Oakland air base. He holds orders to duty involving flying in aircraft since October, 1939, and has logged over 136 hours.

Green's latest rating, technical sergeant, corresponds with a first or "top" sergeancy with a line company and is the highest non-commissioned rank in the Corps except that of sergeant major.

Sgt. Green holds a sharpshooter's medal for his proficiency with the rifle and a medal for good conduct.

His mother, Mrs. Frances Green, resides at Berkeley, Calif., and Mrs. Standish Green lives with her husband at Oakland.

Given 6 Months On Larceny Charge

John R. Signore, 28, of 1175 Walnut st., Newton Highlands, was sentenced to six months in the House of Correction in the Newton District Court on Tuesday morning charged with the larceny of two truck tires and wheels. He appealed and was held in $500 for the Superior Court.

Inspector Joseph B. Lyons testified that he had found the tires and wheels, which had been stolen from a gasoline station at Newton Highlands on July 21 on a truck belonging to Signore which had been rented to a contractor. Signore told the court that he had bought the tires and wheels from a man who brought them to his brother's filling station.

2 Are Eligible For Supervisor

The names of Edward A. Gough of 6 Silver Lake ave., Newton, and Edmund J. Poutas of 25 Clarendon st., Newtonville, have been forwarded to the Newton Board of Public Welfare by the State Division of Civil Service for consideration in placing a supervisor of social workers at $2,000 per year.

IMPORTANT NOTICE TO RETAILERS

All Retail Stores who carry "Cost of Living Commodities" and who have added any new items to this stock during the month of July should file a list of these new items with their ceiling prices with the Newton War Price and Rationing Board at City Hall, Newton Centre, on or before Aug. 10th. Please note that this refers to "Cost of Living Commodities" only as shown under Appendix B on pages 16 to 18 inclusive of the general maximum price regulation bulletin No. 1.

NEWTON CHAMBER OF COMMERCE.

Borings are now being made in various parts of the city to determine the depth required to reach ledge as the tunnel will have to be bored through solid rock. Tests made so far show that the shafts will have to be sunk at least 350 feet.

The tunnel will extend through the city from the Charles River at Riverside to Chestnut Hill. The shafts are to be located at the Brae Burn Country Club; land of the Newton Cemetery off Commonwealth ave., Newton Centre; the Newton Centre Playground and a point near the junction of Beacon st. and Hammond Pond parkway at Chestnut Hill.

Work will be started on the tunnel as soon as the allotment of a Federal grant is announced by the Federal Works Agency. The cost is to be shared by the State and Federal governments. This project has been classed as essential as the water supply will be carried through the tunnel to the war plants of Quincy and other sections.

Karl R. Kennison of Waban, chief engineer of the Metropolitan District Water Supply Commission, has conferred with members of the city government as the commission desires to co-operate fully with the city in regard to this project.

Medical Care Will Be Urged

In a campaign to safeguard the health of war workers, a sub-committee on Industrial Hygiene of the Newton Community Council has been formed under the chairmanship of Dr. Ernest M. Morris, director of public health.

The chief function of the committee will be to serve in an advisory capacity in trying to help local industries to meet the many industrial hygiene problems which are accentuated in this period. Some of these problems fall into the field of occupational diseases, medical and nursing services, nutrition, health, education, safety, mental fatigue, morale and hours of work.

The committee will recommend that adequate medical services for workers be provided in all industries in any way contributing to the war effort.

The functions of medical service in industry are summed up as follows:

To provide prompt first-aid treatment for accidental injuries arising out of employment and for sudden non-occupational illness occurring to any employee at work. To further provide, either directly or through consultants, or the workers' private physicians for all necessary medical and surgical care and rehabilitation of the injured worker.

To provide for pre-placement medical examination of applicants for work.

To provide adequate medical service. The committee will recommend that where full-time medical service is not economically feasible, small industries in the community should be urged to provide adequate service for the group.

The "Manual of Industrial Health for Defense" recently off the press, published by the Division of Health and Social Services of the Massachusetts Committee on Public Safety will be used as a guide for the work of the committee.

In Newton copies of this manual may be obtained by writing Dr. Morris at the City Hall.

Members of the committee include Rupert C. Thompson of the Chamber of Commerce, Dr. Cecil Clark, Dr. Egon Kattwinkel and Miss Hilga S. Nelson, representing the Newton District Nursing Association; Dr. Herman Norton and Miss Ruth Ross of the Raytheon Company, representing Industrial Medicine and Nursing; H. J. Pettengill and Miss Esther Walther, representing the Community Council, and Miss Barbara Griffin, community nutritionist. Representatives of employers and employees are to be added as members.

SERIAL NUMBER GETS BACK STAMP

Because he took the trouble to record the serial number of his auto tax stamp, John Yerardi, 157 Pine st., West Newton, has it back today.

He reported the stamp lost or stolen Saturday and furnished the police with the serial number. Eleanor Gorgone, 253 River st., West Newton, found a tax stamp on Washington st., near St. Bernard's Church and turned it over to the police. A checkup on the serial number revealed that it was the one Yerardi had lost.

Public Hearing On Sewer Project Is Planned Aug. 17

At the next meeting of the Board of Aldermen on Monday evening, August 17, public hearings will be held on the petition of Paul Joos and others for the construction of a sewer in Columbia ave., Ward 5, from Winchester st. to Columbia ave., also on a petition of J. A. Dunn for the construction of a drain and sewer in Valentine st. from Ellis rd. to 164 Bigelow rd.

The board is also expected to act on an offer of $150 for a lot of land owned by the city from Wilton A. Johnson of 25 Douglas st., West Newton. The lot is on Douglas st., known as Lot 31 of Section 36, Block 6.

Defer Action On Bicycles

The Newton War Price and Rationing Board on last Thursday deferred action on applications for certificates to purchase bicycles on receipt of an OPA order permitting the July quota to be carried over into August. The board was also notified that the quota for August will be 35 bicycles.

The board had planned to pass upon about 60 formal applications which they had received before receiving the OPA order. The July quota for Newton was for 18 bicycles and the new order will make it possible to grant 53 certificates during August.

The reason for the OPA order allowing rationing boards to carry over the July quotas is because of the realization that the boards having been so busy with work on the gasoline rationing that they have had little time to give to bicycle problems.

About 150 applications have been mailed to persons who have requested them and these persons will have an opportunity to file their applications before the board acts on those already received.

Assign Two To Motor Cycles

Patrolmen Guy Litchfield and Thomas Mowbray of the Newton Police Department have been assigned to motor cycle duty in place of Patrolmen Manley Kiley and George Cummings who are on vacation. The two men will probably be assigned to cruising cars.

Dale, General Secretary Of Newton "Y", Is Appointed To National Staff

Kenneth S. Dale, General Secretary of the Newton Y. M. C. A., since March 1, 1940, has been appointed to the National staff of the Army and Navy Department of the Y. M. C. A. It was announced by Frederick S. Bacon, president of the Newton Association, that the Y. M. C. A. had given the Newton Y. M. C. A. although he deeply regretted the loss to Newton of Mr. Dale's services.

Mr. Dale will serve as Associate Regional Supervisor of the U. S. O. operations of the Army and Navy Department in the Mid-Atlantic area. This includes Virginia, West Virginia, Maryland, North Carolina and the District of Columbia. His office will be in Richmond, Virginia.

Since coming to Newton Mr. Dale has been responsible for an extension of the local Y. M. C. A.'s educational program and has been instrumental in the development of Association programs which have increased the Y. M. C. A.'s membership and usage of facilities. Under his direction the lobby, kitchen and dormitories have recently been completely renovated until the Y. M. C. A. building on Church st. is now one of the most modern and beautiful in this area.

In spite of the large number of its young men who have entered the armed services the membership of the Newton Y. M. C. A. is now even larger than a year ago. Mr. Dale has a supervisory relationship over approximately thirty U. S. O. units. Many local young men are already being served by these units in addition to the thousands of others from other parts of the country. His appointment to this important post will serve to bring the home ties closer to many of our boys in uniform who are away from home.

In commenting upon his new appointment Mr. Dale said "Although of course anyone would leave this beautiful city with reluctance, the opportunity of serving with the young men of our armed forces presents a challenge too great to be ignored."

Since coming to Newton Mr. Dale has become a member of the Board of Directors of the Newton

Salvage Of Tin Is Necessary

Soldiers in the Libyan desert never would have been able to survive if it were not for the canned food and liquids they receive, Senator Henry Cabot Lodge told officials of the War Production Board, last night. He said that American soldiers and sailors in all corners of the world depended largely on canned food and liquids and added that if Massachusetts people would only realize what it meant to be suffering from food and thirst on the desert and on the world's battlefields, how desperate is the shortage of tin, and how essential for victory is our overcoming the shortage.

"Bay State men and women will pile up a mountain of tin cans higher than Mt. Wachusett," Senator Lodge who recently returned from Libya, where as a reserve major on active army duty he was a member of the first American tank detachment to meet the Nazis in the field, said. "In Libya most of our food consisted of canned corned beef, crackers and rather salty water and tea, but what life savers they were. The tin cans for these canned foods and liquids soldiers in the Libyan desert never would have been able to survive."

"Throughout the world, today, on every battlefield the source on which the soldiers depend for life giving solid foods and liquids is the tin can. Drugs and medicines are shipped and preserved in tin containers also."

"The old axiom that an army fights on its belly is just as true today as it was when Napoleon said it. Our soldiers can not fight without food. Food can not be shipped and preserved without tin containers. With the Axis gaining control of 90 per cent of the tin ore producing countries of the world we must depend solely on the kitchens and homes of America for this vitally needed metal."

"Tin is needed in the manufacture of airplanes, tanks, ships, machine gun mounts, gas masks, radio, telegraph and telephone communications and other mechanized war equipment. But it is even more vitally needed for shipping and preserving food and medicine for our fighting men on land and sea."

Senator Lodge said he heartily supported the tin can salvage campaign and said that a growing realization here of salvage needs would result in Massachusetts people seeing that not one single salvagable tin can was thrown in the rubbish pile, but that each and everyone of them would be saved for the boys at the front.

ALTERATIONS AT CHESTNUT HILL FIRE STATION

The lowest of four bids received for the alterations of the Chestnut Hill Fire station to make it possible to keep an aerial ladder truck at that station was $3,500, according to an announcement made yesterday by Public Buildings Commissioner Arthur Campbell.

He stated that the contract would probably be awarded to the lowest bidder, Richard White Sons, Inc., of West Newton. The need of an aerial ladder truck at the Chestnut Hill Fire Station on Manet rd. was demonstrated by a serious fire at Boston College last year. The alterations will include the installation of a reinforced concrete floor, a basement stairway and a coal chute. The ladder truck now kept at the Newton Highlands Station will be transferred to the Chestnut Hill Station after the alterations are completed. A new ladder truck, ordered last year, will be kept at the Newton Highlands Station when it is delivered. It is estimated, however, that the new apparatus will not be ready for delivery for some months.

The contract price proposed by the lowest bidder was the same sum which had been appropriated for the purpose by the Board of Aldermen at the recommendation of Mayor Paul M. Goddard.

The bids were received by invitation. Besides Richard White Sons, Inc., the bidders and their figures were:

H. H. Hawkins & Sons, Inc., of Newton, $4,736.

T. D. Sullivan & Sons, Company, Newton Highlands, $4,736.

A. Piotti Company, Newton, $4,969.

Simultaneously with the opening of a house-to-house canvass by members of the Women's Division of the Newton Committee on Public Safety to enlist housewives in the salvage of tin cans and fats.

Street Commissioner John D. Haughey announced Tuesday that his force will collect the tin cans on the regular days for the collection of refuse.

He urged that the tin cans be placed in separate containers before being placed out on the sidewalk for collection.

Mrs. Paul M. Goddard and Mrs. E. Brittain Kennedy, co-chairmen of the women's division, are in charge of the canvass. They are assisted by village chairmen in directing the work.

Held For Allegedly Presenting False Prescription

A man who is alleged to have tried to fill a false prescription for narcotic drugs at Hubbard's Pharmacy, Centre st. and Centre ave., Newton, Tuesday night was captured after a chase by Wilfred Chagnon, proprietor of the drug store and a member of the State Board of Pharmacy.

The man was arrested on a charge of "uttering a prescription for a narcotic drug falsely made" and was held in $1,000 by Judge Donald E. Mayberry for a hearing Aug. 13 after he pleaded not guilty in the Newton District Court.

The defendant was booked as Thomas A. O'Connor, 49, a steamfitter's helper, of 25 Dexter rd., Watertown.

He appeared at the drug store before 6 p. m. and presented the prescription, purporting to have been made by Dr. Carl DeSimone, of 3 Sparhawk st., Brighton. The fact that the prescription appeared to have been crudely made immediately aroused Chagnon's suspicions. It called for 30 tablets of morphine.

He went to the rear of the store and tried to reach the physician by telephone, but the doctor was out. As time went on, O'Connor became impatient or suspicious and walked out of the store. Chagnon followed and overtook him in Newton Corner square. As the druggist seized the suspect, the latter demanded that he let him go, asserting that Chagnon had no right to hold him. Chagnon produced his badge as commissioner of the State Board of Pharmacy and convinced the man that he had the authority to hold him.

However, Patrolmen Michael Connolly and Henry McDonagh were not far off at the time and they soon took charge of the prisoner. He was taken to police headquarters and Captain Nicholas Veddio ordered him booked after he communicated with Dr. DeSimone and ascertained that the latter had not issued the prescription.

The prisoner insisted that he had received the prescription from an old man in Watertown, who said he was suffering from cancer and asked him to fill the prescription at Hubbard's Pharmacy. The Watertown police were asked to check on the story and they reported that the name and address of the "old man" given by the prisoner were fictitious.

O'Connor was questioned by Lieut. Daniel Crowley and Sergeant Richard L. Bannon in an attempt to ascertain why the defendant wanted the narcotic and how he came into possession of the prescription blank. The police believe that the blank had been stolen.

Welfare Department Spends $46,700 For First Six Months As Compared With $79,270 In Same Period Last Year

The Newton Welfare Department has reported the expenditure of $46,700 for "general aid" during the first half of this year as compared with $79,270 for the corresponding period in 1941.

The amount appropriated for that purpose this year was $145,000. Providing expenditures for the next six months of the year continue at the same rate, it is

$46,262 Is Given Home For Aged

A sum of $46,262, which was bequeathed to the Home for the Aged in Winchester by the late Emma Huse of Auburndale, and which had been lying dormant in the hands of an executor-trustee for more than seven years, was turned over to the Home this week by Attorney General Robert T. Bushnell.

The will which was probated in 1930 provided that on the death of two life tenants of a trust fund that the money would go to the Winchester Home for the Aged. An investigation showed that the two tenants had died in 1935.

Allison Beach Is Re-Opened

Allison Beach on the Watertown side, located off Pleasant st., has been re-opened for bathing, but the Newton side still remains closed. Both beaches were closed because of pollution in the water. The State Department of Public Health has stated that chlorination of the water on the Watertown side has rendered the river safe for bathing at that location. Allison Beach on the Newton side has been closed for several seasons.

Thieves Enter Esso Gas Station

Thieves entered the Esso Gasoline Station at 2350 Commonwealth ave., Auburndale, during the week end by forcing open a rear window, and $20 in silver was taken from a locked cabinet. The thieves also took a gas pump card.

At about midnight Saturday Officer George Veddio found a 1942 sedan parked near the Moye Chevrolet Company at Newton Corner without registration plates and on inspecting the building found that a side window and side door had been forced open and the front door was open. It is believed that the thief had abandoned the car because of there not being any registration plates on it.

A bicycle was also discovered in a store at 75 Waltham st., West Newton, by the proprietor, Arthur Eccles who had broken two windows, but was apparently frightened away and had not gained entrance to the store.

A skeleton key was found in the door of an apartment of Harry J. Carlson at Bradford ct., Newton Centre, where it is also believed the thief had been scared away before he could gain entrance.

The theft of a Federal auto tax stamp from the office of a car owner by John Yerardi of 157 Pine st., West Newton, was also reported to the police.

The cards, bearing the data concerning the transportation habits of the workers, will be sorted by N. Y. A. girls and will then be analyzed by members of the committee for the purpose of ascert

FOURTH LEGION BAND CONCERT

Over 1,200 persons, the largest crowd in the series, attended the fourth concert presented by the Newton Post American Legion Band at the Newton Upper Falls Playground Tuesday evening.

The entire stock of War Savings Stamps and Bonds put on sale under the direction of George W. Sweet, Newton chairman, was disposed of at the special booth erected on the grounds.

Alderman John Temperley, representing Mayor Goddard, welcomed the band to Newton Upper Falls and praised its members for their service to the public in presenting the concert series. Mr. Sweet also spoke and urged the purchase of more bonds and stamps.

Due to illness of Commander Alvin D. Parker, Peter Kline, Jr., of Newton Centre, was again guest conductor. Betty Gardner, accordionist, played a group of numbers including an original selection for which she asked the public to submit names. Band numbers included classical, semi-classical and popular songs, including "Johnny Doughboy" and "Deep in the Heart of Texas."

The band met at Elliot and High sts. and paraded down Elliot st. to Chestnut st. under the direction of Manager Ross E. Denison. Miss Barbara Furbush was baton twirler.

The fifth in the series of concerts will be presented next Tuesday at Newton Highlands Playground.

Holland has probably more museums per square mile than any other country. The course includes eight months of intensive training as pilots, bombardiers or navigators. William T. Cushing, West Newton; James F. Kavanagh, Newtonville; Alvin G. Plackter, Newton; Norman F. Reed, Auburndale; and Paul S. Rich, Newton.

MULCAHY AT OFFICERS' CANDIDATE SCHOOL

Corp. Hugh Mulcahy of 185 Fairway drive, West Newton, first big league baseball player to be drafted, has been admitted to the Officers' Candidate School at Miami Beach, Fla.

After completing an intensive 12-week course, the former hurler for the Philadelphia Nationals will be commissioned a second lieutenant in the Army Air Force. Upon graduation Mulcahy will be assigned to administrative personnel supply duties.

Sioux Falls, July 27, 1942, Pvt. Thomas J. Johnson, Jr., son of Mrs. Elizabeth Johnson of 2 Clark st., Newton Centre, Mass., who is a student at the Radio School here under the Army Air Force Technical Training Command was commended by the Director of Training for making a grade of 92 in class work.

One of the 9 officers which were added to the Physical Training Department of the U. S. Naval Air Station this week is Lieut. H. W. Gallagher, J. G., 164 Cabot st., Newton. Under the supervision of Lieut. Frank C. Lane, Physical Training Officer, they will direct the Navy's new physical fitness program as it applies to officers, cadets and enlisted men stationed at the "University of the Air."

Lieut. Gallagher, assigned officer in charge of baseball and softball instructions, was former freshman football coach at Northeastern University at Boston, Mass. He is a well-known hockey and soccer player and coach in the North and East.

On August 8, Richard J. Murphy, 461 Albemarle rd., Newtonville, will graduate as a trained airplane mechanic after 19 weeks in the Army Air Force Technical Training Command School at Keeler Field, Miss.

He will then be assigned to line duty servicing the war planes that fly against the Axis, or to receive additional specialized instruction or become an instructor.

Fort Sill, Okla. (Special) Second Lieutenant Francis C. Donovan, Jr., 87 Washington st., Newton, Mass., is now attending Battery Officers Course No. 62 of the Field Artillery School. Lieut. Donovan, son of Mr. and Mrs. F. C. Donovan, reported to Ft. Sill from Fort Bragg, North Carolina. He is 22 years old.

Norman F. Reed of 35 Ware rd., Auburndale, left for Santa Ana, California, on last Saturday where he will train as an Army Aviation cadet. It was reported by Major General Sherman, First Service Command.

Mr. William T. Cushing of 826 Watertown st. was one of the 70 Massachusetts young men who left on last Saturday for Santa Ana, California, to start training as a pilot, navigator and officer.

Private Leonard E. LeSourd, son of Dean Howard M. LeSourd of B. U., 206 Waverley ave., has arrived at the technical training command post in Scott Field, Illinois, where he will receive an intensive course in radio operating and mechanics to fit him for duty as a member of a fighting bomber crew.

During his training period, Private LeSourd will be tested by experts as to aptitudes for special types of work, and when his course is finished he will be sent to more advanced training centers which are part of the vast network of technical training command schools under Maj. Gen. Walter R. Weaver. Upon graduation he will be well qualified for duty as an expert radio operator or technician wherever his services are required by the Army Air Forces.

John S. Hay, son of Mr. and Mrs. Edgar P. Hay of 18 Warwick rd., West Newton, is now an aviation cadet at Kelly Field, Texas.

Until recently, Cadet Hay has been a corporal in the 101st Field Artillery stationed at Camp Edwards.

Destroy The Ragweed!

That Massachusetts' production efforts and 275,000 defense workers be protected from ragweed-induced hay fever was urged today by Dr. Paul J. Jakmauh, State Commissioner of Public Health, in a statewide appeal for the immediate destruction of ragweed before early August pollination.

"We are out to win a war," Dr. Jakmauh stated. "The State's munition plants, shipyards and other war industries vital to the successful prosecution of the nation's war effort must continue to produce at their present high levels. This cannot be done, however, unless the efficiency of the man on the assembly line is maintained by good health. We must all help guard the public health against the sabotage caused by physical disability. We must prevent 90% of the late summer and early fall hay fever caused by ragweed pollen, which can be carried for many miles in a fairly high degree of concentration."

"Therefore I call the attention of every citizen of our key defense State to a part they can play in helping win the war through the early destruction of as much noxious ragweed as is possible. By pulling up this weed and all within the next week or two, we can help reduce the amount of hay fever-producing pollen to a minimum, thereby substantially lowering the incidence of hay fever throughout the State. We who are left on the home front, particularly wardens, auxiliary police, housewives and children, can help safeguard Massachusetts' vital war effort and the public health by the eradication of ragweed. Keep the assembly line moving! We've got a war to win!"

The State Department of Public Health suggests:

1. Eradicate ragweed early in season before the plant pollinates.
2. Cutting or mowing is more economical than pulling along roadsides and extensive areas.
3. Pulling of ragweed is the best method in restricted areas such as flower gardens, lawns and small vegetable gardens. Grasp plant close to the ground.
4. Replace ragweed by more desirable plants such as grass, which will crowd out the pest.
5. If plants are cut early in the summer a second cutting is necessary early in September.
6. Owners of vacant lots should be responsible for the elimination of any ragweed on their property.
7. If you don't recognize ragweed, ask your neighbor to help you identify it. He might help you exterminate it.

William F. Doherty of Newton, Mass., was designated a flying naval officer at Jacksonville, Fla., when he received his "wings" from Capt. John D. Price, commandant of the station.

Ensign Doherty, a graduate of Boston College, earned his commission as a fighting aviator only after many months of intensive training in aviation mechanics and aerial maneuvers.

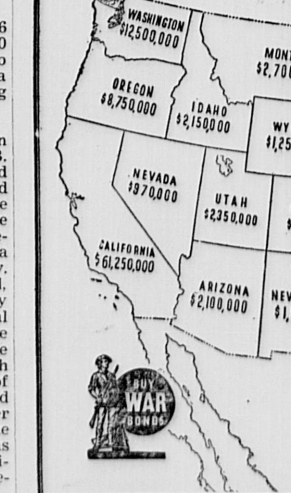

Completing preliminary flight training at the Naval Reserve Aviation Base in Squantum, he reported to Jacksonville in January to begin the intensified, advanced course.

Doherty is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Peter F. Doherty, of 2 Barnes rd., Newton, and a graduate of Our Lady High School.

Men are dying for the Four Freedoms. The least we can do here at home is to buy War Bonds—10% for War Bonds, every pay day.

Restaurants and Color Psychologists have found that the noise and color which accompany our meals play a more important role than we realize. As a result, restaurant owners are catering almost as much to nerves these days as to appetites. It has been proven that customers actually order more when surrounded by walls painted a warm color than those painted one of the cold shades.

Bayonets American troops are being equipped because of that radio-photograph. Mr. and Mrs. America didn't buy this year. The steel in an average radio-photograph would make close to a dozen bayonets.

Washington, D. C., August 5.—While maintaining a tentative annual level of twelve billion dollars as its goal, the Treasury Department today fixed the August quota for the sale of War Bonds at $815,000,000 as shown by the accompanying map by states.

In lowering the quota from a billion dollars in July to $815,000,000 in August, the Treasury has given recognition to certain factors which may be expected to result in variations in sales over the 12-month period, such as the seasonal character of farm income.

Motorcycle officer Lawrence O'Donnell of the Newton Police Department, the 10th member of the department to join the armed forces, left last Friday to go into active service with the United States Navy. He will be rated as a first class boatswain's mate.

O'Donnell is married and his family resides at 496 California st., Newtonville.

Patrolman James S. Goddard, who has joined the U. S. Coast Guard as an acting chief of party, is leaving today. Goddard also is married and his family resides at 43 Cross st., West Newton.

Patrolman John Sallemme who was inducted into the Army on Thursday will leave for active service on Wednesday, August 12. Sallemme resides with his mother at 95 Freeman st., Auburndale.

Several other members of the police department are awaiting orders to report for active duty with the armed forces.

Our fighting men are doing their share. Here at home the least we can do is put 10% of our income in War Bonds for our share in America.

Mixed Diet According to the Fish and Wildlife Service, the tiger shark goes in for variety in diet. Cases of two sharks are cited. The stomach of one contained a horse's head and a dehorned cow's skull. That of the other contained 7 leggings, 47 buttons, 3 leather belts and 9 shoes!

Are you entitled to wear a "target" lapel button? You are if you are investing at least ten percent of your income in War Bonds every pay day. It's your badge of patriotism.

Gold in Sheep's Head While stirring a stew of sheep's head, a housewife of Cardiff, Wales, struck gold. Closer examination showed layers of fine gold on the sheep's lower teeth. The butcher told her that the sheep came from a flock which had grazed on Llanishen gold links, and suggested that a lost gold ring might have been the origin of the lucky strike.

False Stories There is little or no truth in the somewhat general belief that the wolverine habitually lies in wait in a tree for deer to pass, then drops on them, kills them and devours the carcass in one big meal. As a matter of fact, the wolverine rarely climbs, seldom attacks a full-grown deer and its appetite is not particularly large for an animal of its size.

Wasted money is wasted lives. Don't waste precious lives. Every dollar you can spare should be used to buy War Bonds. Buy your ten percent every pay day.

Wooden Map of Ohio A map of Ohio, made of inlaid sections of wood representing each county, adorns the southeast corner of the conference room set aside for the governor in Ohio's new $60,000,000 state office building now nearing completion. Its purpose is to provide a ready reference for the governor and his cabinet in discussing the affairs of state.

Washing Machine's Value Keeping the washing machine clean and free from strain now is just as important as keeping the clothes white. A washing machine's value to the family now goes beyond the fact that it turns out a snow-white wash with a minimum amount of labor on a homemaker's part. It may be the last one for a while, since manufacturers of washing machines are now making war equipment.

Missouri Quail Population Rises The quail population in Missouri has increased more than a bird per square mile in a single year, the Missouri Conservation commission announces. This claim is based upon a late-winter census just completed on 208 sample mile-square areas in which all sections of the state were proportionately represented. A 1942 average of 19.87 birds per square mile was revealed as compared with 18.64 for 1941.

The navy is issuing a call to all men between 17 and 50 who are not yet in uniform and who are physically qualified to choose some branch of Naval service before it is too late. Ratings are still available in most divisions to men with the necessary experience and qualifications. Pay ranges from $50 to $138 per month plus allowances for dependents and sea or foreign duty.

Navy trade schools are equipped to train men in 49 skilled trades, offering an education that would cost $1500 per year in private trade schools. Every recruit has an equal chance of being assigned to one of the trade schools at the completion of his basic training more than 25,000 young men being selected each month for this special training.

Ratings for yeomen and storekeepers are again open to men with a knowledge of typing, secretarial work, or general office experience. Knowledge of shorthand is not essential for a rating as yeoman, third class, or for storekeeper.

The Navy Recruiting Station at Waltham City Hall is the headquarters for enlistments in this vicinity. Complete information and applications may be obtained daily from 8:30 to five o'clock on Monday or Wednesday evenings until nine o'clock.

AT "WONDERLAND" CAMP IN SHARON

Twelve Newton boys and girls, selected by the Newton Family Service Bureau are among the 496 fresh air guests who arrived Wednesday (Aug. 5) at the Salvation Army's camp "Wonderland," in Sharon, where they will stay for two weeks in a playground set among 84 acres of beauty. They were welcomed by Mrs. Colonel Richard F. Stretton, superintendent of the camp and were at once given separate beds and their place in the camp set-up.

The taking of children to "Wonderland" is backed by the Army's Local Emergency Fund in Newton, of which State Representative Douglas B. Francis, is chairman and William M. Cahill, treasurer of the Newton Trust Company, is the fund treasurer. This fund, made up of money set aside at the end of the annual appeal is to meet any emergency—do any service for Newton folk, according to Mr. Francis.

War Bond Purchases
July sales of War Bonds totaled $900,000,000, the second highest monthly amount on record and $250 million above June sales, Treasury Secretary Morgenthau said. The highest monthly total was that of January when the amount was $1,060 million. Morgenthau said the August quota has been placed at $815 million. "Because of seasonal variations in income distribution, it would not be practicable to establish monthly quotas at a uniform figure of $1,000,000,000," he said.

A WEEK OF WAR

Price Administrator Henderson announced that maximum gasoline prices in the rationed area of the 17 Eastern States and the District of Columbia will be reduced 2½ cents a gallon beginning August 5. He also announced reduction of 0.9 cents for kerosene, 1.1 cents on distillates and light heating oils, and 15 cents a barrel on residual fuel oils.

Mr. Henderson said the reductions were made possible under the recent agreement worked out by the Office of Price Administration, the Office of Petroleum Coordinator and the Reconstruction Finance Corporation, whereby the Defense Supplies Corporation will absorb the extra transportation costs for moving petroleum into the Atlantic seaboard area.

Commerce Secretary Jones reported the Defense Plant Corporation will finance a two-point program to convert existing steel dry-cargo barges into tank barges to transport oil, and to improve existing inland waterways. The Bureau of Mines estimated the national gasoline demand for July, August and September will be about 17 percent less than in the corresponding period last year, eliminating the necessity for a large winter accumulation of stocks.

President Roosevelt issued a statement that every user of fuel and heating oil on the east coast "should face realistically the fact that there can be no guarantee that he will get enough oil even to meet his minimum needs." Petroleum coordinator Jones asked all sellers of fuel and heating oils in the East to request their customers to convert oil burners to the use of coal or other available fuels. The Office of Solid Fuels Coordinator reported bituminous coal stocks in storage in the U. S. increased an estimated 5,850,000 tons in June to a near all-time record. The Office said consumer stockpiles, however, continued insufficient to provide adequate protection against possible shortages during the fall and winter.

The OPA established a wholesale ceiling price on milk and cream, sold in bottles or paper containers, at the distributor's highest March level. The action was taken to prevent a price "squeeze" on milk retailers by some milk distributors. The official ceiling price of retail prices a pound for waste kitchen fats now being sold by housewives in the salvage program, and a ceiling price of five cents a pound for the sale of the same fats from meat dealers to renderers.

Price Administrator Henderson established a 60-day temporary ceiling on wholesale and retail lamp prices, at the highest levels charged by each seller during the period July 27-31. The temporary ceiling on lamp prices, effective August 10, places even higher ceilings on the prices of incandescent lamps. The OPA said Armour & Co., Swift & Co., and Wilson & Co., Inc. have agreed to submit for auditing the sales records of all their branch houses for the purpose of refunding their customers (wholesalers and retailers) all charges made in excess of the maximum prices for beef and pork.

President Roosevelt told his press conference there are three reasons for the current shortage of meat in the East and some mid-western States: (1) It is the off season for beef. (2) People have a good deal more money with which to buy more and better cuts of meat. (3) This country has around 4,000,000 men under arms for whom meat supplies must be prepared months in advance. Mr. Roosevelt said the people will have to expect new shortages from time to time because that is part of the price of winning the war.

Farm Income
During the first half of 1942 cash income from farm marketings totaled $5,773 million compared with $4,012 million in the same period last year, the Agriculture Department reported. Income from crops was up 36 percent and income from livestock and livestock products was 48 percent greater. The Department said a record volume of marketings is expected in the latter half of 1942. Total cash income from farm marketings during 1942, including Government payments, probably will exceed $14,500 million, the report said.

Rationing
The outlook for obtaining sugar supplies from the Caribbean has "taken a turn for the worse" because of submarine warfare and the amount of shipping directed to war purposes, the OPA said. The Office asked sugar refiners in Louisiana and Texas not to ship to sugar markets in Indiana, Illinois and Ohio until at least September 1 because of a shortage in their States. The OPA said the refiners' receipts from Cuba and Puerto Rico are below expectations.

Under rationing regulations persons owning more than one type of vehicle may dispose of their machines only to authorized dealers or to the Procurement Division of the Treasury, OPA said. The office ruled all new auto bicycles are subject to rationing "even though they may have been disassembled or altered or the parts changed."

Transportation
The Office of Defense Transportation took over allocation of all new buses and froze all integral-type buses in the hands of manufacturers. Under the new plan, the ODT will grant permission to buy new buses only when the purchasers sign an agreement giving ODT authority to transfer the buses for use elsewhere if transportation difficulties develop. ODT Director Eastman asked Public Service Commissions of the States to make a nation-wide survey of local rail and bus passenger services to eliminate duplications. War Production Chairman Nelson said the WPB is studying the proposal to shipbuilder Henry Kaiser to build 5,000 large cargo planes to converted shipyards. The Maritime Commission reported U. S. shipyards broke all records in July as 71 new merchant vessels were put into service, making a total of 299 cargo vessels and tankers produced during the first seven months of this year.

The War Front
Lt. Gen. Stilwell's China headquarters reported U. S. airmen have broken the back of an elite force of Japanese bombers and fighters assembled for the purpose of driving them out of China. The climax was reached July 30, the communiqué said, when 17 Japanese bombers and new type Zero fighters were shot down. Gen. MacArthur's Australian headquarters announced Allied planes conducted raids on Japanese positions around Amboina Island in the Netherlands East Indies to Guadalcanal Island in the Solomons. The Navy announced the sinking of four United Nations merchant vessels by enemy submarines.

Trial of Nazi Saboteurs
The Supreme Court ruled that the charges preferred against the eight Nazi saboteurs allege an offense "which the President is authorized to order tried before a military commission." The commission is lawfully constituted, and that the saboteurs are held in "lawful custody." The saboteurs were brought again before the military commission.

The Armed Forces
The President signed a bill creating the Women's Auxiliary Reserve in the Navy, which will be made up of first of 1,000 commissioned officers and about 10,000 enlisted members. He also signed a bill to permit the CAA to train airplane mechanics in its Civilian Pilot Training Centers. The Army has asked for training of 31,000 mechanics. Selective Service Headquarters instructed 55 local boards to induct during August some men classified in 1-B with certain types of physical defects.

In The Past

A. L. Rhind is offering great bargains in boots and shoes, at his store in Hyde's block, Newton.

The tax rate will soon be fixed for the year. The state tax has increased $14,000 over last year, and the county tax $2,000, making $16,000 more to pay than in 1886. This naturally will increase the rate somewhat in our city.

The family of the late Josiah Lasell, after whom Lasell Seminary was named, have given $30,000 for a new gymnasium at Williams College. The old building was destroyed by a cyclone in 1883, and Mr. Lasell, who was then living and a member of the class of '44, gave $5,000 at once towards the replacement of it. The new structure will henceforth bear his name.

The Waltham and Newton Street Railroad has purchased a new open car, which was put on the track last week. It is a fine addition to the company's equipments.

It is respectfully suggested that the street department take immediate steps towards removing poison ivy from the streets of Newton Centre.

The members of steamer company No. One have been presented with a useful and ornamental leather apron for the water tank on the new steamer. The leather was selected and stitched by Mr. T. F. Glennon and Mr. P. Y. Hosason. The apron is a very realistic and well executed painting in oil colors, representing a fire scene, occupying about one square foot of space. A tall business block, from the upper stories of which sheets of flame are bursting and in the street below on ladders the fire brigade is hard at work.

The electric cars are certainly a blessing to babies, and on every trip one discovers several of these small atoms of humanity, who appear to enjoy the breeze which the cars make even on the hottest day and come home refreshed by the trip, as well as the mothers and nurses. There is no prettier street car ride in the vicinity of Boston than from Newton to Waltham, and the great number of ladies and children who take it this hot weather shows what a benefit it is to Newton. Our local street car societies could not do more good than furnishing free rides to those who cannot afford it, although fortunately we have very few such in Newton.

The mobilization of the National Guard and the call for the draft home, in the most forcible manner, the dread fact that the country is really at war. Up to this time, the war has not been felt by the average person, as it has largely been confined to the exhibition of flags, and the drilling of the Home Guard, whose duties have not been taken seriously as yet. But the draft touches all classes of citizens and in many a home, a deeper interest will be taken in the war because some one dear to that household is actually engaged in the defence of his country. God grant that universal peace may soon be a reality.

PIONEERS—1942 BRAND

America's pioneers have made her great. Across the ocean, over mountains, plains and desert, our fathers blazed a trail for freedom. Industrial, social, scientific frontiers also have yielded to the determination of a courageous few who have dared to conquer the unknown.

As surely as the present has been molded by these pioneers of the past, so will the future be shaped on today's frontiers. The pioneers of yesterday pitted themselves against the rugged forces of nature, and won. The pioneers of today must conquer the lawless forces of human nature. This is the challenge of 1942. If these lawless forces cannot be conquered—if men cannot learn to work together and fight together for a new world, we face, even with military victory, constant repetition of world-wide chaos.

But human nature can be changed. Today's pioneers are bringing this hopeful message to America, and the leaders and people of the nation are welcoming it. Said Senator Arthur Capper of Kansas:

"Faith in God, love of the land, and a pioneer spirit once conquered a continent. Americans will fight for moral re-armament as the next frontier movement in American history, and make the same sacrifices to carry it from coast to coast."

How can the average American join in this pioneering? There is a popular victory song which puts it in a nutshell:

"Clean up the nation from bottom to top, Start with yourself in the home and the shop"

The pioneers of today are the men and women who successfully tackle human nature because they begin with themselves.

Letters To The Editor

It is with great reluctance that I announce the withdrawal of my name as a candidate for the Massachusetts Senate.

The services I have been called upon to render to the City Government as Administrator of the War Transportation Committee, Chairman of the Industrial Division of the War Savings Committee, as a member of the Newton Salvage Committee and particularly the numerous responsibilities as Secretary of the Newton Chamber of Commerce compel me to decide that my duties lie along the lines of continuing to do my share in these important functions rather than to give them up and attempt to serve our district as a member of the Senate.

I appreciate most highly the support indicated by those citizens who signed my papers and also the friends who volunteered their support, but I feel confident that they will agree with this decision as this is no time to consider personal desires or any consideration other than the work we can best do to help win the war and to keep everlastingly at that job.

RED CROSS RECOMMENDS SWIMMING AS RELAXATION

"Sooth those wartime nerves by swimming," says one of the National Directors of the Red Cross Life Saving Service, and he adds that the relaxing benefits of swimming are needed as never before to fight off fatigue and keep in trim.

It is a well-known fact that a few minutes of relaxation in cool water will do more to relieve nerve tension than almost any other activity. The people of Newton, however, already know what bathing can do for them reports Mr. E. M. Westgate, director of swimming and life saving for the Newton Red Cross, as shown by the record attendance at Crystal Lake this year. It seems to prove that in spite of restrictions placed on the use of automobiles they will seek relaxation, comfort and gentle big-muscle exercise wherever they find suitable bathing waters.

The following young people passed water tests at Crystal Lake during the past week: Junior Life-Saving, Mary DeRusha, Margaret McCormick and Philip Burt; Intermediate Swimming, Ida Senarain, Edith Roth, Irene Kersting, Paula Murphy, Grace Marchant, Annie Krosschell, Patricia Duffy and Lee Marston.

Zonta Club

On Tuesday, July 28th, over Station WEEI, President Della Stanley of Waban, gave the highlights of the Zonta International Convention held recently in Toronto, Canada.

Mrs. Stanley spoke of the activities in U. S. Clubs, citing those, also, in Honolulu and Reykjavik, Iceland, the latest Zontian member organization work is going on in South America, although the foreign clubs are inactive at present.

Most informative was her mention of Amelia Earhart Scholarship Fund, the object of which is to further the study of aeronautics. The first winner was Mrs. Elizabeth Lund who has made a brilliant record at M. I. T. Miss Lund is now doing research work at Hampton, Virginia, studying the flutter of the wings of an airplane. She believes pilots lose control of their planes because of the "flutter."

Miss Mildred Boyden, a Wellesley graduate, and second winner of the scholarship, is using it to prepare herself to teach pilot meteorology in a ground school. Ultimately Miss Boyden plans to become a meteorologist for commercial airlines.

Mrs. Stanley further paid a tribute to Dr. Katherine Blodgett of the Schenectady Club, as the inventor of invisible glass.

A summary shows that women are contributing much to make the slogan of the Toronto Convention real: "Geared for war, Zonta thinks of Peace. Unity of thought and action is imperative."

CHURCHES OF CHRIST, SCIENTIST

"Spirit" is the subject of the Lesson-Sermon Sunday, August 9, in all Churches of Christ, Scientist, branches of the Mother Church, The First Church of Christ, Scientist, in Boston, Massachusetts.

The Golden Text is: "Where the Spirit of the Lord is, there is liberty" (II Corinthians 3:17). Other Bible citations include: "Grace and peace be multiplied unto you through the knowledge of God, and of Jesus our Lord, according as his divine power hath given unto

One LUMP OF SUGAR

One PAIR OF PANTS

Party Line Telephones

PARTY LINES have long been an object of good-natured humor. But they've given good service at lower than individual-line rates... and they served their purpose.

NOBODY SAID they were equal to individual lines. Neither is one lump of sugar as good in your coffee if you like two; nor one-pants suits for two-pants men.

SERIOUSLY, saving copper may be more important than saving sugar or wool. These can give comfort to some boy in service, but copper helps him fight. It goes into bombers, cruisers, tanks, submarines—into shells and bombs tagged for Tokio and Berlin.

THE SMART thing today is not to "keep up with the Joneses," but to keep down with them. That may mean one lump of sugar, one-pants suits, party-line telephones and brief conversations.

SO WHEN your neighbors take party-line service don't think they've got an economy streak. Telephones can be shared like wool, sugar, tires and gasoline.

What You Buy With WAR BONDS

Hitler found out that his high powered mechanized and motorized army bogged down in the snow and mud of the Russian Winter. Although our Army is largely mechanized the cavalry horse is still a highly essential factor in this mountain division and in the Field Artillery. The Army also maintains remount farms where many cavalry horses are bred and raised.

These select horses cost from $100 to $165 and our crack cavalrymen are expert riders and carry on the traditions which have followed the cavalry from the earliest days of the Army. Purchase of War Savings Bonds will insure good mounts for the Cavalry. You and your neighbors buying War Bonds and Stamps regularly every pay day can help buy these horses for the U. S. Cavalry. Invest at least 10 percent of your income in War Bonds.

U. S. Treasury Department

Lost and found columns of Tokyo newspapers are crowded these days. Every time an American buys a War Bond, the Japs lose face. Buy your 10% every pay day.

No Best Medicines. There aren't any best medicines for cancer. Go to your doctor if you have any doubts about your health. The correct medical treatment for cancer is surgery, radium and X-rays.

Light Year. A light year is almost six trillions of miles in length. It is the distance that a lightwave, whose speed is 180,000 miles per second, travels in a whole year.

Beaver Built. Beaver in Mississippi have built a 1,030-foot dam on Blackwater creek, Kempen county. So well is it constructed that the waters of the creek have backed up to form an 80-acre pond.

Direction Does Not Matter. As long as it does not cast a shadow or shine in your eyes, it does not matter what the direction is coming from when reading.

Earthquakes. Japan is an archipelago of 4,072 volcanic islands and has experienced as many as 600 earthquakes in one month.

The Black River. The Rio Negro or Black River is an excellent name for this river whose waters are as black as coal. It is a tributary of the Amazon and is more than a thousand miles long. The Amazon is yellow and it is a strange sight to see this mighty river with a black streak running through it. The difference in color comes from the soil through which each of these two rivers flows.

Jewish Leap Year. The orthodox Jewish calendar runs 354 days to our year, and so once about every three years—seven times during a period of 19 years—the Jewish calendar has a 13th month—the intercalary month of Veadar which is the Jewish Leap year.

Control Fire From Spreading

An alarm was sounded from Box 76 at 4:51 a. m. on Saturday morning for a fire in a shed at the Luther Paul Coal Company, 35 Paul st., Newton Centre. The fire department succeeded in controlling the blaze before it could spread to a string of wooden garages and sheds in the yard of the coal company. Several lines of hose were laid and the fire was confined to the shed where the employees change their clothing before and after going on duty. Several articles of work clothing were destroyed by the fire.

SALESMAN HALTS RUNAWAY AUTO

An alert salesman who saw a runaway car rolling down Chestnut st. in West Newton Monday morning averted a crash by leaping onto the running board of the car and applying the emergency brake.

The salesman, Alfred Bruno of 299 Hanover st., Boston, was on Washington st. when he sighted the runaway machine coming out of Chestnut st., headed directly for the Watters drug store on Washington st. He took the situation in at a glance and acted without hesitation, bringing the car to a stop a few feet from the building.

The police were notified and Motorcycle Officer Cornelius J. Dwyer, who was sent to the scene, learned that the car was owned by Quincy W. Wales of Sylvan ave., West Newton. The machine had been parked on Chestnut st. hill, and in some unexplained manner the brakes were released while the driver was absent.

Information concerning absentee voting has already been posted in all our armed camps throughout the world and both the Army and Navy have agreed upon a form of post card on which to apply for absentee voter ballots. These cards will be issued to all in the service and may be sent postage free to the Secretary of State. If local election officials find the applicant to be a qualified voter a ballot will be mailed to the address given on the card.

Commissioned officers in both branches of the service have the same powers as notaries public and justices of the peace to take any affidavit required for absentee voting.

The Army and Navy will do everything possible to assure delivery and return of all such ballots. There is no question of sufficient time for getting ballots out and back anywhere within the United States and it is believed that many of our forces in other lands will also be able to take part in elections. Under the Massachusetts constitution absentee voting is restricted to elections only but in some states it is also permitted at primaries.

To vote, one must be a registered voter. Although there is no provision for registering by mail in Massachusetts, we have a special law which permits those in the Army and Navy to register at any time not less than three days before the election. This means that those in the service who are not now on the voting lists may, if they are home on leave at any time, register up until October thirty-first.

Mr. Cook hopes that families of those in the Army and Navy will urge them to apply for and mail in their ballots and show the world that liberty and freedom still reign in our land and that every American still has a vital part in its government.

VOTING BY THOSE IN ARMED FORCES

Secretary of State Frederic W. Cook announces that plans have been perfected to help all persons in the Army and Navy, who are registered voters, to cast their ballots at the state election next November, not only in Massachusetts but in nearly every other state. The committee on election procedure of the National Association of Secretaries of State, of which he is chairman, has been working on this since early in the year. A number of bills have been introduced by various members of Congress, but none quite solved the problem. Several were not wholly satisfactory to Army and Navy authorities because their operation might interfere with the war effort and training in camps. Other bills limited the vote to only a portion of the services; others were too complicated. After many conferences with the Army and Navy departments, the department of Justice and members of Congress, a simplified plan has been agreed upon. Congress now has before it a bill which has been drawn to co-operate with proposals of Secretary Cook's committee to furnish any Federal aid and authority that may be necessary. Our own Congressmen McCormack and Martin have been active in this legislation and as the majority and minority leaders of Congress have given the committee much assistance.

Information concerning absentee voting has already been posted in all our armed camps throughout the world and both the Army and Navy have agreed upon a form of post card on which to apply for absentee voter ballots. These cards will be issued to all in the service and may be sent postage free to the Secretary of State. If local election officials find the applicant to be a qualified voter a ballot will be mailed to the address given on the card.

Commissioned officers in both branches of the service have the same powers as notaries public and justices of the peace to take any affidavit required for absentee voting.

The Army and Navy will do everything possible to assure delivery and return of all such ballots. The house was entered by a thief on Tuesday afternoon of last week while Mrs. Ryan and her daughter were sitting on the front porch of their home. When Mrs. Ryan went in to answer a telephone call, she saw a youth of about 20 years run down the back stairs and through the back door. Sergeant Richard L. Reports Husband Has Disappeared

Mrs. Michael Nunno of 26 El-lis place, Newton Upper Falls, reported to police Wednesday evening that her husband, Michael Nunno, 25, mysteriously disappeared from his home last Monday, August 3. He was last seen at 9:00 a. m. He had given no indication of leaving and had only a small amount of funds in his possession.

He was described as 5 feet 4 inches, 135 pounds, brown eyes, black wavy hair, dark complexion and being lame. He wore a blue serge suit, white sport shirt and black shoes. The description was broadcast by police by radio and teletype to police in surrounding towns. Mr. and Mrs. Nunno have two children, and he is engaged in the shoe repair business.

Blow on Head; Woman In Hospital

Mrs. Irene L. Maxwell, 39, of 22 Byrd ave., West Newton, was removed to the Newton Hospital by the police last Thursday, suffering from a severe cut on the head and a possible fracture of the skull received under mysterious circumstances.

Inspector Joseph B. Lyons, assigned to investigate the case, questioned the victim at the hospital and she is alleged to have told him that she was struck on the head with a shoe, but she said she would decline to prosecute her assailant. Although she suffered the injury the preceding night, it did not come to the attention of officials until Thursday morning when a neighbor notified the police. Mrs. Maxwell is the wife of Coburn Maxwell, a salesman.

Five Scouts Tell Of 90-Mile Hike

Five Newton Scouts described an 11 day, 90 mile hike in the White Mountains on their return to Camp Quinopoxet in West Rindge, N. H. The scouts were Walker Merrill, Dick Hovey, Carter Hoyt and William Proctor all of Troop 19 and Warren Stone of Troop 15 Norumbega Council Boy Scouts. The hike started at the base of Mount Liberty and followed trails over Mount Lafayette, Garfield Ridge and Garfield Pines to Galehead Hut where they spent the first night.

A four day trip during which it rained most of the time took the groups over Mounts Guyard, Boulder, Resolution, Isolation and Mt. Washington. At camp outside of Bartlett, N. H., the hikers rested and dried their clothing. Slippery trails and steep rocks caused many thrills and a few spills but no injuries were sustained.

From Bartlett the group hiked to North Conway where it took a bus to Manchester and thence to Camp Quinopoxet.

The group encountered much hurricane timber and a variety of wild game, including numerous signs of deer and bear. Much of the 90 miles of hiking was done far above the clouds. The hike is an annual event in the camp curriculum.

The preserve of 160,000 acres has an estimated 60,000 muskrat population.

30 Newton Women Awarded Nutrition Certificates

The Newton Chapter of the American Red Cross has just awarded nutrition certificates to 30 women who recently finished a 20-hour course under the guidance of Mrs. Joseph Bishop and Mrs. Everett Marsten. Two special lectures were given—one on meat by Mrs. Harold Shedd and one on vegetable cookery by Mrs. James Morton.

The graduates of this nutrition class were Mrs. Edith Andrews, Mrs. Dorothy Bernard, Mrs. Charles Breed, Mrs. Fred Carey, Mrs. L. E. Concannon, Mrs. Elizabeth Crews, Mrs. Samuel Cutler, Mrs. L. A. Clifton, Mrs. Elsie Dusossoit, Mrs. Leon Farley, Mrs. Roberta Gerlach, Miss Alice Jones, Mrs. G. L. Gogan, Miss Alice Graham, Mrs. Ralph Hatch, Mrs. Charles Haney, Mrs. Murray MacKay, Mrs. H. A. McCrea, Mrs. Everett Olds, Mrs. Frank Pulver, Mrs. David Reynolds, Mrs. Eleanor Shattuck, Miss Mary Stark, Miss Hazel Stewart, Mrs. Marion Sundin, Mrs. Frederick Tennant, Mrs. John B. Tolman, Mrs. Frank Wightman, Mrs. Alice Winters and Mrs. Mabel Wead.

At the last session of the class, Mrs. Cutler read the following poem which was inspired by the recent lectures she had received on what to cook and how to cook them:

A Murderer's Confession

For years I've been a murderer!
Nor dreamed that such I be.
I've murdered all the vitamins
From a right down to Z.

I'd fix my vegetables in the morn
And let them soak all day
Not knowing that their vitamins
Were soaking right away.

And, not content with doing that,
I added to my crime
By drowning all my vegetables
When it was cooking time.

When they were nice and mushy
I'd say, "They're done, I think."
And then I'd pour the vitamins
Right down the kitchen sink.

But now I've had "Nutrition"
And my duty I'll not shirk!
I'll save the lives of vitamins
Though it makes a lot more work.

I'll add hot water sparingly
And I'll highly fix the cover.
And, less they burn, how lovingly
Around the stove I'll hover.

For, if you lose the vitamins,
Just bulk is all you get!
My Red Cross class has taught me
The things I won't forget!

No more will I murder vitamins
For I've reformed, you see.
No more will I mention vitamins
Or my family will murder me!

CHURCHES OF CHRIST, SCIENTIST

"My soul shall be joyful in the Lord; it shall rejoice in his salvation." These words from Psalms 35:9 comprise the Golden Text to be used Sunday, August 16, in all Churches of Christ, Scientist, branches of The Mother Church, The First Church of Christ, Scientist, in Boston, Massachusetts.

The subject of the Lesson, Sermon will be: "Soul." Included among the Scriptural selections will be: "Incline your ear, and come unto me; hear, and your soul shall live; and I will make an everlasting covenant with you, even the sure mercies of David. . . For ye shall go out with joy, and be led forth with peace; the mountains and the hills shall break forth before you into singing, and all the trees of the field shall clap their hands." (Isaiah 55:3, 12).

The following passage from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy, will also be included: "As the children of Israel were guided triumphantly through the Red Sea, so the dark ebbs and flowing tides of human fear, as they were led through the wilderness, walking wearily through the great desert of human hopes, and anticipating the promised joy,—so shall the spiritual idea guide all right desires in their passage from sense to soul, from a material sense of existence to the spiritual, up to the glory prepared for them who love God" (p. 566).

HEADQUARTERS FIRST SERVICE COMMAND

Boston, Aug. 11.—Setting the example in line with its suggestion to home-owners, the Government through the War Department has arranged for the conversion from oil-burning to coal-burning at the huge South Boston Army Base according to announcement today from the Public Relations Branch at the First Service Command.

One of the first to change over back in 1923 from coal to oil, those in charge of the Army Base presently preserved two coal stokers for emergency use which down through the years they have tested and had available in case the oil heaters failed to function properly. Also demonstrating Yankee economy they store away the coal-burning apparatus so that now with a general over-hauling, it will only necessitate supplying some new parts. This expenditure will easily be absorbed in the savings between the price of oil and coal this winter.

Many of the older employees who today recalled the vast piles of coal dumped between the Administration building and the tracks were disappointed to hear that the contract calls for deliveries of coal as needed.

Attuned still further to war conditions, plans are under way to "convert" the apparatus similarly at the Cadillac and Buick buildings on Commonwealth ave., now occupied by the War Department.

Richard O'Rourke Missing In Action

Richard O'Rourke, 35, of 949 Chestnut st., Newton Upper Falls, a member of the regular Army, who resides at the Chestnut st. address, received a letter from the chaplain of her brother's regiment congratulating her on the latter's promotion to private specialist fifth class and commending him for devotion to duty.

The letter, dated Feb. 14, was sent from Fort Mills in the Philippines, and was signed by Capt. A. V. Cleveland, regimental chaplain. The missive, stating that the promotion was made last Jan. 11, preceded by more than three months the first notice that he was missing by his relatives that he was missing in action.

Mrs. Eames was first notified that her brother was missing on May 27. The second notice came July 26, stating that he was still missing, despite efforts of the War Department to trace him.

In view of the fact that he was at Corregidor during the siege of that fortress, it is believed that he may have been taken prisoner by the Japs when Corregidor fell.

Pvt. O'Rourke enlisted in the Army in 1936 and was placed in a Coast Artillery unit. He was sent to Hawaii, where he remained five years. Last August he was transferred to Fort McDowell, near San Francisco, and was granted a month's furlough, which was to have started in September. He prepared to return to Newton to visit his relatives but before he could start the furlough was cancelled and he was sent to Fort Mills in the Philippines. The last letter received from him by his sister was dated Oct. 16 and in it he stated that "trouble was expected" in the Philippines.

All of the Christmas presents and letters sent to him by his relatives were returned undelivered. They learned that he had been transferred to Corregidor.

Private O'Rourke's father, John O'Rourke, is employed at Western College. His mother died four years ago. He has two sisters, Mrs. John Quinn of Newtonville, and Mrs. Catherine Buckley of Newton, and two brothers, Serg. Jeremiah O'Rourke, stationed at Ft. Devens, and John F. O'Rourke, who resides at Bayside, Long Island, N. Y. Serg. O'Rourke, who enlisted in the Army in October, 1940, has volunteered for foreign service.

Brockton Fair Opens Sept. 13

Brockton Fair crowds will be treated to all the established features of the 71-year-old event plus many new ones to be introduced for the first time at the 1942 exposition to be held here Sept. 13 to 19.

In a seven-days, seven-nights schedule of programs and events announced today by Secretary Frank Kingman, a parade of attractions ranging from timely war exhibits and demonstrations to a glittering New York night club revue to be imported, intact, from Broadway was listed.

"In no respect," said Kingman, "will there be any curtailment in connection with this year's fair. It will measure up to the usual high standards, with heavy emphasis on entertainment."

The Brockton Fair executive said the night club production—"May Night Revue"—will be staged here exactly as thousands are now seeing it in one of New York's most colorful night clubs, Lou Walter's famous "Latin Quarter" on the Broadway site of the old Cotton Club. The revue will be staged on a stage in front of the fair on a huge stage in front of the grandstand.

Pari-mutuel running races, a popular innovation at the 1941 fair, will be repeated at the coming exposition, with six matinee card races scheduled from Monday through Saturday.

Other special features include a novel "Foods for Victory" cooking school, a wartime fashion show, the annual dog and cat shows, old-fashioned pling contests for New England's champion oxen, the customary strong cattle, poultry, flower, and goat exhibitions and others.

On the midway, 40 carloads of riding devices and tented show features will be paraded under the banner of the World of Mirth Shows, America's largest touring carnival organization.

It has been said that the most remarkable characteristic of the U. S. marines is the result attained by comparatively insignificant numbers.

Rotary Club

Despite wartime conditions the convention of Rotary International held at Toronto, Canada, this year was "one of the most intensive, interesting and thorough meetings in years, according to Harry A. Starr of Waltham, past district governor, who was the speaker at the meeting of the Newton Rotary Club at the Brae Burn Country Club.

The theme of the convention was "Where Friendship Grows in Rotary." Commenting on the theme Starr said:

"How appropriate to have such a subject for the convention at Toronto, for after all the meaning of Toronto in the original Indian tongue was 'where friends meet'."

According to Starr, 6,671 Rotarians from all over the western hemisphere were at the convention. Guests and speakers at the convention sessions included The Earl of Athlone, governor general of Canada; Lord Charles P. R. de Waverham, England, first vice-president of Rotary International, who talked on "For Such a Time as This"; President Tom Davis; Mayor Conboy of Toronto; Past President Guy Gundaker; Mrs. Jean Conboy, wife of the founder of Rotary; Paul Harris; L. W. Brockington of Ottawa, Canada, on "Brotherhood in Arms"; Past President Almon E. Roth of San Francisco on "Cooperation in the Battle of Production"; and Marino Ferraz of Soa Paulo, Brazil.

A radio broadcast from Australia to the convention included a talk by Lord Charles P. R. de Waverham, past director and a member of the 1943 convention committee, who is on Gen. Douglas MacArthur's staff.

Fernando Carbajal, of Lima, Peru, was elected president and the Club of Chicago was re-elected treasurer of Rotary International.

Concluding his address Mr. Starr said:

"There is something about a Rotary convention that just cannot be obtained from the most careful reading or hearing of reports. To get the real true value of a convention, one must attend and actually take part in it. This convention came at one of the critical periods in world affairs when the significant seriousness of international relations sinks deep into the heart of every Rotarian. The most casual participant amidst such a gathering takes on the keenest interest in the things abroad as well as for affairs at home. His horizon lifts as he directs his thinking and also his action along lines that consider more than 210,000 Rotarians and their friends in the 5,085 groups that are Rotary in 50 different countries of the world where freedom of expression now permits Rotary to exist and serve."

"Why not begin right now to make plans for attending the next or 34th annual convention of Rotary International which is to be held on June 13-19, 1943 at Philadelphia?"

Wilbur Thompson, an honorary member of the Newton Club, presided at the meeting after an absence of about a year on account of illness.

Matthew F. Ruane, new president of the Newton Rotary Club, has announced the chairman of committees to act for the ensuing term as follows:

Aims and objects, Matthew F. Ruane; club service, Herbert M. McGill; vocational service, Alfred P. Hartshorn; community service, Warren W. Oliver; international service, Rev. Ray A. Eusden, D.D.; auditing, Stafford H. Witte; attendance, Charles Sprague; program, Herbert M. McGill; good cheer, Harold E. Says Everyone Should Participate

President Norman U. Armour of the Massachusetts Co-operative Bank League states that Co-operative Banks of Massachusetts believe every bank and every individual should participate to the fullest extent in the war program both financially and in all other ways possible.

The Co-operative Banks in their part of the program already have purchased, and held on June 30, 1942, for their institutions, over $17,500,000 of War and Government securities and have tentatively agreed to increase their holdings to $25,000,000 by the end of the year. Banks, like individuals, are purchasing both in bulk and in monthly amounts. In addition to their own holdings the Co-operative Bank officers and employees are actively participating in the purchase of War Bonds and Stamps for their own individual accounts and the Banks are not only urging their customers and friends to buy Bonds and Stamps but have opened separate departments to facilitate the sales, which are increasing every day.

President Cannon of the United States Savings and Loan League has appointed Henry H. Pierce, President of the Merchants Co-operative Bank of Boston, as chairman for Massachusetts for the United States League in co-operation with the Treasury Department to participate in the purchase by December 31, 1942 of $100,000,000 additional War Bonds and Government securities by Co-operative Banks and Savings and Loan institutions throughout the country.

War Department Seeking Women

The War Department is looking for women who can learn to handle guns and munitions, the United States Employment Service office at 9 Beacon st., revealed in a government personnel recruitment bulletin, which reports that qualified women will be paid while they learn to become civilian ordnance inspectors.

Women with college or high school training in mathematics and physics or chemistry are urgently needed for war service appointments to replace men who are entering the armed services, according to the Manager of the local U. S. Employment Service office where further information may be obtained and applications prepared.

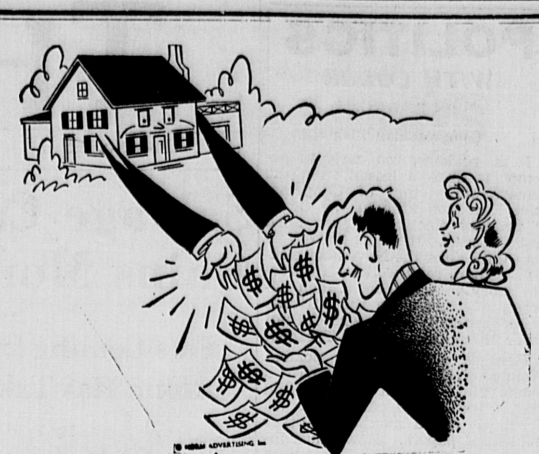

Almost immediate appointments will be given to the first successful candidates for trainee jobs beginning at $120, a month to be provided at the University of Maine to those who qualify on the basis of training and mechanical aptitude test, he said. Suitable accommodations at reasonable cost will be provided at a campus dormitory at Orono, Maine, where hundreds of women will be trained for these jobs within the next few months. The course includes eight hours of classroom work five days a week and visits to factories are scheduled for occasional Saturdays. Free tuition and transportation expenses to and from the school are provided by the War Department which urgently needs women qualified to replace inspectors who are entering the armed services.

Graduates who demonstrate proficiency in their work will be recommended for appointments as Junior Inspectors at $135.00 a month and may qualify for possible subsequent promotions in grade, it was indicated on the basis of Civil Service Commission announcements of these War Department positions.

According to the instructions received here from Major John E. Ratigan, Training Officer of the Boston Ordnance District, training in trigonometry and physics is desirable since college students or high school graduates with sufficient advanced mathematics and physics are assigned to a nine-weeks course whereas those who have not had such courses in school will be given a twelve-weeks period of training. The course includes technical subjects such as industrial materials, machine shop practice, blueprint reading, inspection technique and standards, and classroom and laboratory work.

Successful applicants must agree to work for the Boston Ordnance District throughout the war and as much as six months thereafter, it was pointed out, with semi-permanent assignment to localities within New England according to the needs of the service. U. S. Employment Service officials expect that women will prove exceptionally well fitted for ordnance inspection work since it largely consists of precision measurements on metal parts, a type of work for which women have proved themselves unusually proficient.

Immediate applications are requested from any women 18 years of age or over, who are citizens of the United States and who have successfully completed either one year of engineering school or two years of a general college course.

Driver Asleep; Hits Hydrant

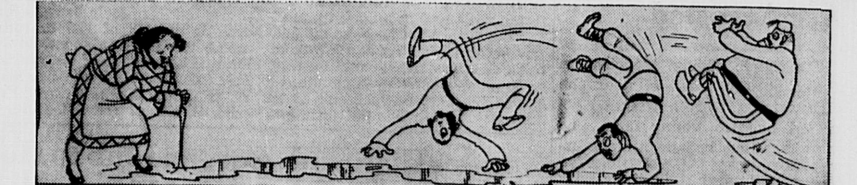

Thomas V. Deloffi, 27, of 244 Nevada st., escaped serious injury when his car proceeding east on Watertown st. early Saturday morning struck and broke off a hydrant and knocked down a mail box at Crafts st., Newtonville. Deloffi told police that he was traveling along Watertown st. about 12:10 a. m. when he fell asleep and the accident ensued.

The hydrant was broken off at the base but the automatic shut-off prevented the water from flooding the street. The water department was notified and a repair crew was sent out to restore the hydrant. The mail box was damaged and was later attached to its original position.

Letters To The Editor

Editor, Newton Graphic:

An article on the trust funds in the Emma Belle Huse case failed to mention a very important figure in that case—a grandniece who now lives in New Jersey and who was mentioned in the will as a beneficiary of the trust fund as well as the two life tenants referred to in the article. Following the instruction of the testatrix the trustee could not ignore the claims of the grandniece.

The Department of the Attorney General must be credited with doing a fine piece of work in effecting a compromise between the grandniece and the Home for Aged People, whereby the trustee was enabled to make a partial distribution to the Home.

Trust funds which earn income from Savings Bank interest amounting to $18,500 over a period of twelve years could not be termed idle funds nor could it be a case of a dormant estate or trustee if the latter's accounts were not only approved but actually recommended for allowance by the Department of the Attorney General on July 24, 1942.

I would also call your attention to an article which appeared in the Winchester Sun on August 7, covering this matter.

Thanking you for your attention to the same, I am,

Very truly yours,
JOHN C. MADDEN.

This is one way to Conserve TELEPHONE SERVICE!

WE DON'T SUGGEST that you do this. But we do ask that you reduce the number of non-essential long distance calls and that you make all your calls as brief as possible.

WAR MUST HAVE first call on telephone lines. War calls must not be delayed.

BECAUSE METAL SHORTAGES, copper particularly, forbid the building of more telephone lines, the only way important war calls can get through crowded telephone lines is by public cooperation. That means fewer and briefer telephone conversations for all of us.

Victory Garden Project Needed

The people of these United States must produce and give to their utmost capacity if we are to win this war for freedom. They must produce food to maintain not only the fighting forces in the field, but also the producing forces at home.

I sincerely urge every garden operator to display the results of their efforts in supplying "Food for Freedom" at Boston's First Victory Harvest Show.

This was the statement of R. A. Van Meter, Head of the Division of Horticulture at Massachusetts State College in a letter to Ernest Hoftyzer, President of the Advertising Club of Boston, endorsing Boston's First Victory Harvest Show which will be held in cooperation with The Massachusetts Horticultural Society at Horticultural Hall on September 28, 29 and 30.

Mr. Van Meter's letter continues: Boston's Victory Harvest Show should stimulate greater interest in Victory Gardens and help greatly in preparing for a sounder and more effective garden program in 1943.

The shortage in transportation facilities that has limited the gasoline supply may develop to the point where it affects seriously the vital food supplies of New England. If that time comes the home garden program will become one of the most important phases of the war effort.

Over 300 prizes will be given to exhibitors at Boston's First Victory Harvest Show, which will mean that approximately one out of every three persons who exhibit will win an award. Prizes will consist of War Bonds and Stamps.

Secretary Edward I. Farrington and Exhibition Manager Arno H. Nehrling of the Massachusetts Horticultural Society stated today in answer to many requests for entry blanks, that entrance requirements and blanks will be made available the latter part of this month.

Kiwanis Activities

At the weekly luncheon meeting of the Newton Kiwanis Club Tuesday, the members listened to a talk given by Rupert Thompson, Secretary of the Newton Chamber of Commerce, on what Newton is contributing to the industrial war effort. Up to date the payrolls of the Newton industrial plants have increased 44 per cent more for the first six months of 1942 than any other city in the state. There are many plants in Newton at the present time that are working on nothing except war work and the number of employees in these factories has increased nearly 50 per cent within the last year. He also stated that there are still more industries who are interested in entering the city of Newton. A lot of the work that is being done in these factories could not be stated as it is of a secret nature. Newton as a city, Mr. Thompson said, is certainly doing its share in the production of war materials and supplies.

There was a special meeting of the Board of Directors held after the regular meeting, where they discussed the possibility of having Rubinoff, the great violinist, appear in Newton this coming fall. Announcement will be made later.

Smart Detective Work Recovers Lost Wallet

Some painstaking detective work on the part of Lieut. Daniel E. Crowley and Inspector Joseph E. Lyons of the Newton police yesterday resulted in the recovery of a leather wallet, lost Saturday night by William J. McKerron, 20 Carleton st., Newton.

The wallet, together with most of its cash contents, was found by the police in the possession of a young woman. McKerron's social security and draft cards were missing. The money remaining was $44.27 and the young woman admitted that she had spent about $7 of the original sum, but she insisted that the cards were not in the wallet when she "found" it. She said she was therefore unaware of the identity of the owner.

McKerron had reported that he laid the wallet on the shelf in a telephone booth at a Newton Corner drug store and departed without it after using the telephone. When he discovered his loss later, he returned to the store, but the wallet was gone.

The police traced the pocketbook to the "finder" by ascertaining the identity of the person who was the next to enter the telephone booth after McKerron.

Cyril Forbush of Newton has sold his property at 195 Church St. (next to the Baptist Church), in Newton Corner, to Homes, Inc. of Newton. Homes plans to remodel it into a modernized two-apartment house. There is a large lot of land and a barn with this property.

Increasing Fall activity in the Newtons is reported by Dodd & Drake who have just sold the shingled frame Colonial home at 19 Ellison rd., Newton Centre, for Joseph Burke of Brookline to Thomas M. Burke of Hyde Park. This property contains nine rooms and two and one-half baths, and is heated by an oil-fired furnace with hot-water radiation. A large play room and lavatory on the first floor and a large bedroom on the second floor. For tax purposes this estate is assessed for $10,400 of which $1,900 is on 9,229 sq. ft. of beautifully landscaped grounds. The purchaser and his family have already taken possession of their new home.

John T. Burns & Sons, Inc., report that final papers have gone to record in the sale of the property located at 15 Bemis rd., Wellesley Hills. This is a six family apartment known as 'The Bemis' and for the purpose of the sale is valued at $10,000. Catherine Prince has purchased for investment and Winston Prescott of Stoneham was the grantor.

In the Auburndale section of Newton the property numbered 407 Central St. has been sold by the Burns office for the estate of Mary J. Henrich. This fine, older type residence comprising 10 rooms has with it an attached garage and 17,167 square feet of land.

John T. Burns & Sons, Inc., represented all parties in these transactions.

The office of Charles J. Kinchla reports the sale of the Williamsburg Colonial type house located at 180 Winchester st., Newton Highlands. The house, a framed dwelling, contains seven rooms, two baths, which includes a first floor paneled den with bath, a basement play room, fireplace, and attached single car garage. The lot of land with 7000 square feet is landscaped and for tax purposes is assessed for $7400. The title was conveyed by the Newton Trust Company of Newton to George W. and Mary C. Peterson. The new owners have taken possession of their new home.

John T. Burns & Sons, Inc., have sold the two-family frame house located at 172 Faneuil st., Brighton. Pompeio and Candido Rufo of New York have purchased for a home and investment. The seller, Gardner S. Bank, was represented by Homer T. Brown, Inc., and the purchaser by the Burns Corporation.

In Newton Highlands the Burns office has sold the two-family house located at 19 Columbus st., which contains 12 rooms and has a total land area of 20,000 square feet. The Wilsey Savings Bank conveyed title to Howard Bell. John T. Burns & Sons, Inc., represented both parties in this transaction.

Alvord Bros., realtors of Newton, Wellesley and Weston, report having sold the property located at 289 Woodward st., in Waban. This brick Colonial home has a living room, with fireplace, dining room, kitchen, and large sun porch, on the first floor and a large two-chamber with stall shower, two additional bedrooms with tile bath, and a sewing room on the second floor. The garage is under the house, and the premises are heated by a hot water system fired by oil. The house is landscaped and situated on a large lot of about 12,500 square feet, which is nicely landscaped and adorned by many beautiful trees.

The Lexington Savings Bank gave title to Dr. and Mrs. Fred F. Goodsell of Brookline, who have already occupied their new home. The property is assessed for tax purposes by the City of Newton at $11,300. Alvord Bros. represented all parties in the transaction.

Howe Associates, Newton Centre realtors, report the sale of an attractive Victorian type frame dwelling situated on a spacious corner lot, containing 20,235 square feet of land and located at 65 Washington st., in the Hunnewell section of Newton. The house contains eleven well appointed rooms, including an unusually attractive library with walls fully paneled in gumwood, two baths, two-car basement garage, and is heated by hot water fired by oil. The property is assessed for $10,000. The Volunter Co-operative Bank of Boston conveyed title to Barbara Reimer, who has already taken occupancy of the property as a permanent home. Howe Associates represented both parties in the above transaction.

Tropical Paradise
Palms line the gleaming coral beach at Nassau, and when the northern lands are shivering in the grip of snow and sleet, the Bahamas are like a veritable tropical paradise. At Nassau, the capital, the water is warm and unbelievably blue, so that the sand looks whiter and the palm trees greener by contrast. The beaches are ideal, sheltered, and they are by the jutting coral reefs that surround the island.

His Vision
Methinks I see in my mind a noble and puissant nation rousing herself like a strong man after sleep, and shaking her invincible limbs; methinks I see her as an eagle mewing her mighty young, and kindling her undazzled eyes at the full midday beam.—John Milton.

Flying Ant Plague
It took the fire department of Swamp, Texas, to 'put out' a swarm of flying ants which completely covered a house from roof to foundation.

Courses Available On Metal Work

Courses of training in machine operating and sheet metal work are available for men 18 years of age or over, to equip them for service in the war production program, according to an announcement made by Ralph E. Wight, manager of the Newton Office of the United States Employment Service, 290 Centre st., Newton Corner.

The courses consist of 40 hours a week and extend for a period of 10 weeks.

"Employment in well-paying war production jobs is practically assured any person who successfully completes the course," Mr. Wight said. "In fact, men who exhibit marked ability are often offered positions before the end of the 10 weeks' training period, with employers completing the instruction 'on the job.'"

Applications for enrollment may be made at the office of the Employment Service. The office hours are 8:30 a. m. to 5:30 p. m., Mondays through Friday, and 8:30 a. m. to 12:30 p. m. Saturdays.

After her husband's death in 1904, Mrs. Chase carried on an art business in Houston, Texas, for some years, but later returned to Newtonville and was for nearly eight years in charge of the Newtonville Branch of the Newton Public Library. She has lived in Pasadena for about twenty years and leaves many friends both there and in Newtonville. No members of her immediate family survive.

Funeral services were held in Pasadena and a memorial service will be held in the Newton Cemetery Chapel, September 9 at 2:30. Burial will be in the Chase family vault in the Newton cemetery.

Evacuation Group Test Canteen

On Sunday afternoon, August 9, a surprise test was made for the Canteen workers assigned to the various Newton evacuation centers. Early in the afternoon, Mrs. Fred G. Sandford, acting chairman of the Newton Red Cross Canteen Corps, was told that, due to a nearby disaster, 250 evacuees were being sent to Newton and would be taken to Lassell Junior College. She immediately got in touch with Mrs. John Guiney, officer of the day for that evacuation center, who assembled her committee at the College. In that group were Mrs. Earle Cort, Mrs. R. K. Fletcher, Mrs. C. G. Munger and Mrs. William Seymour. On the arrival at Lassell of the 25 Boy Scouts, who represented the 250 evacuees, the Canteen Unit went into action and served as they would in a real emergency.

At the same time, Mrs. Sandford got a second phone call, this time that another group of evacuees were being sent from Newton City Hall by convey to the Fessenden School Evacuation Center. The thirty Boy Scouts representing this group were met at the Fessenden School by Mr. Enoch Ferguson, officer of the day, and her committee which included Mrs. William A. Daniels, Miss Alice Jones, Miss Helen McClure, Miss Madeline Sears and Miss Hazel Stuart, and were served Canteen there.

Tennis Finals

In the finals of the Young Men's Tennis Tournament held on Wednesday, Aug. 5 at the Burr Playground, Paul Gayzagian defeated John Halliday (6-1) (6-3). The trophy was donated by the director, Guy S. Baker.

Miss Louise Daly is the young ladies' tournament winner. She defeated Jean Avantaggio (6-1) (4-6) (6-2). The award for winning is a gold medal.

On Friday afternoon, July 31, the Burr playground building was the scene of a farewell party for Paul Rich, who has since left for pilot training in California. Gifts were presented from the boys of the baseball teams, from the small children and from his fellow workers on the playground staff.

More Than 1500 Unpaid Auto Excise Tax Bills Here

City Treasurer and Collector Clarence C. Colby has placed more than 1500 unpaid auto excise tax bills in the hands of a constable for collection. The delinquent taxpayers must pay the demand charges and constable fees. About 18,000 excise tax bills have been issued this year by the city collector representing a total of about $260,000. The total amount collected in excise taxes on Newton cars last year was about 330,000, but because of the reduction in the number of cars on the road this year the total for 1942 is expected to be far below that figure.

If the bill is uncollected 30 days after it is turned over to the constable for collection, the city treasurer is required by law to notify the Registrar of Motor Vehicles. The Registrar then revokes the registration of the car and the owner is forced to surrender the registration plates.

Slips on Rug; Fractures Hip

Elizabeth H. Cheney, 86, of 103 Floral st., Newton Highlands, suffered a fractured hip at her home last Thursday afternoon when she slipped on a rug on a highly polished floor. Members of the household summoned Dr. Cecil Clark and notified police. The victim was removed to the Newton Hospital in the police ambulance by Patrolman Joseph B. Kelly and John A. Bibbo. Because of her age the woman's condition was considered serious.

Poisonous Drug Plants

Many drug plants are poisonous, and inexperienced growers run a risk in handling them. Since the plants must be grown in quantity to make them profitable, raising them in the small home garden is not feasible. Another factor to be taken into consideration is the difficulty of harvesting and preparing many of these plants for market so that they can be sold at a profit.

Acreage Factor in Foodstuffs

One hundred acres of potatoes are estimated to produce food enough to maintain 418 persons for a year, whereas only half as many people could be maintained on wheat from the same acreage.

Medical Examiner Thomas Morton Gallagher reported that injuries suffered by Mrs. Jennie Barrow, 82, of 674 Centre st., Newton, on July 28, caused her death on Tuesday, August 4. Mrs. Barrow suffered a fractured skull as a result of a fall down a flight of stairs at her late home.

Reach Agreement On New Garbage Contract Price

An agreement has been reached between Mayor Goddard and John A. Janse, City garbage contractor, for the renewal of the contract when it expires in November, at an increased cost.

The city has paid Janse $40,000 a year for the past two years in accordance with a contract made in 1940.

The increased cost of operating the business led Janse to propose the increased price of $46,000 per year, and the city government has approved the proposal. Mayor Goddard conferred with the Board of Aldermen and explained the situation.

It is planned to renew the contract without asking for bids. Two years ago bids were received from several firms and although Janse was not the lowest bidder his contract was renewed after he agreed to cut the price to $40,000. City officials decided at that time it was for the best interests of the citizens to make no change in contractors.

Got the need?

We've got the cars!

Rationing Rules were not Meant to Prevent Replacement of Cars which are Really Needed. It Sometimes Helps More to Replace that Old Car than to Try to Keep it Running

CONSIDER the reasons for present rules and regulations governing the purchase of new cars.

They were not meant to handicap owners whose cars fill necessary purposes. Nor to keep cars on the road beyond the point of safety or efficient operation. Nor to stop the normal process whereby cars pass from owner to owner and thence out of service to become much-needed scrap metal.

They were simply meant to see that cars now built and ready for sale got into the hands of those who needed them — as their needs demanded.

If your car serves a really necessary purpose, Buick dealers are prepared to make immediate delivery on brand-new, gas-thrifty, dependable new models built for the purpose of seeing you through the duration.

With such a car, you travel safely, make best use of gasoline and oil, start fresh with brand-new tires on wheels designed to get maximum life from them. For dependable performance of necessary jobs, such a car is frequently far more of an asset to the country than one which has passed its prime.

Why not drop in on your Buick dealer and talk over all details of the whole situation?

If you're eligible to buy —

ARE YOU directly or indirectly engaged in the production of war materials or the prosecution of the war?

ARE YOU a physician, surgeon, nurse, veterinarian, clergyman or farmer?

DO YOU use your car in public service, such as fire or police, public health, highway maintenance work or the like?

ARE YOU owner of a taxicab or other vital means of public transportation?

THESE ARE the broad groups who are eligible under present rationing rules to buy new automobiles. There are other details of eligibility, of course, but if you are included in the above, it will pay you to see your Buick dealer now and get full information. Get the facts before you assume either that you can't or shouldn't buy a new car now!

POLITICS

WITH COLOR

By P. W. C.

"Double-header" Candidates

There is one phase of politics which mystifies many innocent voters and definitely irritates those who labor diligently in the field of good government. I refer to the "double-header" candidate, if I may coin a new phrase: the man who seeks a nomination in both major parties. Our neighboring town of Brookline will be obliged to pass judgment on this problem on Sept. 15, when four candidates, duly registered as Republicans, will find themselves in competition with a gentleman who is not enrolled in either party and is currently endeavoring to obtain both the Democratic and Republican nominations.

In Newton we have Thomas E. Morahan, formerly of Brighton, seeking the nomination in both party primaries. A member of his household advises me that he is not enrolled in either party. On what basis, may I ask, does he seek votes, especially in a Republican primary? Thousands upon thousands of earnest, hard-working people do their utmost each year to promote the welfare of their party. They give time, money and service, working shoulder-to-shoulder with other men and women to whom their party means something. I am, of course, referring to voters in both major parties.

Well, as our friend Al Smith once said, let's look at the record. In the 1940 Republican primary in Newton, the total vote in the Senatorial contest was 11,436, including 773 blanks. Senator Arthur W. Hollis got 6,974 votes or 60.9 per cent of the total. Warren K. Brimblecom got 3,393 votes or 29.6 per cent, and Thomas E. Morahan got 296 votes or 2.5 per cent of the total. Blanks accounted for the remaining 7 per cent. Do not those figures indicate Mr. Morahan's status as a Republican?

Now return to the Democratic primary in 1940. Here we find three candidates for the Senatorial nomination. The total vote, including 3,014 blanks (a huge figure), was 10,836. Morahan polled 3,891 and his two opponents, Read of Cambridge and Shallow of Boston, polled a total of 3,930, or 39 votes more than Morahan. In other words, Morahan polled 2.5 per cent of the vote in the G. O. P. primary and just under 50 per cent in the Democratic primary. Possibly that makes him a "near" Democrat.

I hope I have not unduly labored this point, which seems to me to be of considerable importance.

James M. Curley

Somebody made a very funny wisecrack a few days ago. I neglected to make a note of the source. The point was made that if former Governor James Michael Curley were elected to Congress from the new Eleventh Congressional district next month, the State of Massachusetts would then have three Senators. See the point? Even if we disregard Senator Walsh's rather personal trials and tribulations as well as Senator Lodge's absence from the country over an extended period, when there was vital work to be done at home, the fact remains that Mr. Curley is so tremendous a dynamic and tireless that he will undoubtedly stir up far more excitement in Washington than Senators Walsh and Lodge combined. And I do not mean to imply that it will be mere excitement, either. Believe me, Mr. Curley is a man of tremendous ability, which, if directed into proper channels, will be of great value to state and nation.

In closing, let me digress a bit. Personally, I am absolutely fed up with the "politics as usual" attitude in Washington. So many vital matters are going to be taken up AFTER election—freezing of wages, nation-wide gasoline rationing, drafting of boys 18-20, the gigantic tax bill and a host of others. Even the dependents of men in the service were told that payment could not be made until the day before election—the book-keeping problems were so delicate and complicated! Public wrath appears to have changed that situation now. Please note, however, that somebody in the administration seems to find time to butt in to the New York politics (the Farley-E. D. R. feud over the Governorship) and also into Massachusetts politics. I would like to ask some of my Democratic friends if they think it was just "happenstance" that a half-dozen Democrats suddenly withdrew from the race in the district where Messrs. Curley and Thomas H. Eliot will now fight it out alone, practically speaking. It is rumored that a big Boston Democrat—the same one who inserted these gentlemen in the contest—yanked them all out on orders from above. Where above? Well, why not ask our present Congressman, Hon. Thomas H. Eliot of Cambridge? It is a safe bet that he could, if he would, give you most of the answers.

Four Ordered To Appear for Breach of Health Laws

Four storekeepers have been summoned to appear before Dr. Ernest M. Morris, director of public health, in a drive against violations of Health Dept. regulations. The violations were discovered during routine inspections by Sanitary Inspector Irving M. House. The alleged offenses include keeping tainted meat for sale; having unclean premises, failing to keep food properly covered, serving milk from other than individual bottles and failing to have hot water available for sterilizing utensils.

Inspection of stores throughout the city is being continued by the staff of inspectors and any other violators will be warned if they are first time offenders and prosecuted if they have been warned previously.

More Newton Men In Naval Service

Navy enlistments in the past week have included ten men from Newton who were sworn in by Lieut. George M. Powers, Jr., assistant recruiting officer at the Navy Recruiting Station at Waltham City Hall. Most of the men have already been sent to a training station or are on inactive duty awaiting a call to service.

The local men were: Erwin William Beal, 919 Watertown st., and Stanley Walter Nelson, 24 Westwood st., both of West Newton; Calvin Robert Goodale, 102 Boyd st., John Joseph Newton, 16 Margaret rd., Highlands; Edmund Joseph Sullivan, 468 Watertown st., Newtonville; John Joseph Greene, 4 Essex st., Robert William Kelly, 15 Sheridan st., Albert Leon Bedner, 65 Pearl st., Franz William Bang, 121 Newtonville ave., and William Francis Barlow, 297 Lexington st., Auburndale.

Men interested in coastal patrol duties with the Navy are offered many opportunities in Class M-2 which comprises service on minesweepers, submarine chasers, and small patrol craft with local defense forces. Ratings are offered to men with experience as yachtsmen or fishermen or to those familiar with small boats. Young men without previous boat or sea experience may now be enlisted in this branch as apprentice seamen.

Regardless of reports to the contrary, there is no difference between the Regular Navy and Naval Reserve duty except for term of enlistment, age requirements, and that enlistment in the Regular Navy is for apprentice seamen only. The term in the Navy is six years; Naval Reserves are released within six months after the duration of the war. Men enlist in the Naval Reserve while the Regular Navy age limit is from 17 to 31. The pay, uniforms, and opportunities for advancement are the same in both branches.

The Navy Recruiting Station at Waltham City Hall is open daily from 8:30 to five o'clock and on Monday and Wednesday evenings until nine o'clock. Applications may be made and complete information secured without obligation.

Board Warns of Misusing Gas Book

Complaints regarding the misuse of preferred gasoline ration books are being investigated by the Newton War Price and Rationing Board and some offenders have been called before the board and warned. Complaints include cases where cars of Newton physicians and others bearing "C" stickers have been reported seen on Cape Cod and where owners of such cars have been informed by the Board that a combination of A and B or A and C books entitles them to only 90 miles a month of "home driving," such as for shopping purposes, taking children to school, etc. The rest of the supply is issued for business, professional or occupational driving only. The Board warned that further violations would result in revocation of ration books.

Local Boy Wins Navy Commission

U. S. Naval Air Station, Jacksonville, Florida, August 19.—After several months of intensive flight training, Malcolm Thomas Murray, 26, of Newton, Massachusetts, was commissioned an Ensign in the Naval Reserve, it was announced this week.

Captain John D. Price, commandant of the big aviation center here, commended the flying officer upon his successful graduation and presented him Navy "Wings" at brief ceremonies.

Ensign Murray reported to Jacksonville as an Aviation Cadet in February after completing elimination flight instruction at the Naval Reserve Aviation Base at Floyd Bennett Field, Brooklyn, New York.

In addition to hours of dual and solo flying at the Jacksonville Navy air school, Murray piloted many types of powerful planes through all kinds of weather conditions. He also learned the prescribed Naval ground school course relative to aviation before receiving his commission.

Son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Frederick Murray of 584 Centre st., Newton, he attended Newton High School and graduated from Boston University in 1940.

When the Japs first took over 90% of the world's tin supply, as well as our tin in the United States, we were not equipped to salvage tin. So tin was not called for in any quantity up to lately. This condition has now been partly remedied in the East. Besides the large detinning plant in Pittsburgh, two salvers are now in operation in New Jersey, and one is being considered for Boston; for the drive to salvage all tin cans in the country, so far as practicable, is on for the duration.

Little need be said here, it seems to me, regarding the urgency of the need. We all know that tin is essential for many military uses, not only in the manufacture of equipment and projectiles, but also in getting drugs, as well as food, to the fighting front in good condition. Last year the United States salvaged 100,000 tons of tin. The best that can be hoped for from primary tin supply for this country this year is 50,000 tons, according to the estimate of the Massachusetts Salvage Committee. The national committee hopes to salvage 10,000 tons of tin and about a million tons of steel scrap from cans. To accomplish their objective will require more painstaking cooperation from all the people in areas available to the detinning plants than in any other division of the general effort to recover the needed and usable waste material of the country. While not complicated, the directions issued for the tin can salvage have been carefully studied and are explicit. As issued, they are as follows:

1. Wash cans to prevent deterioration of tin as well as contamination of detinning fluid.
2. Cut out top and bottom of can, so as to permit the free flow of the detinning fluid through it. Do not hammer.
3. Flatten can by stepping on it, but do not use side of foot together that you can not still see through the can, or the detinning process will not work efficiently.
4. Place the prepared cans in an ordinary stout paper or shopping bag. When the bag is full, it can be conveniently handled, put on street by the side of your cans on regular rubbish collection days.
5. Paint, oil, varnish and cone shaped cans cannot be used, neither is it considered worthwhile to turn in conformed milk cans.
6. It is unnecessary to wash off the residual glue after removing label.

Brooks To Seek Re-Election

Councillor Frank A. Brooks, member of the Governor's Council for the past eight years and for 17 years chairman of the Massachusetts State Parole Board, is a candidate for re-election to the Council and has received assurances of support from thousands of voters throughout the district.

Frank Brooks is one of the real veterans of Massachusetts politics and government and his judgment on the Governor's Council has long been respected and revered.

Resident of Concord, there is no more dramatic figure in Massachusetts politics, probably none who has fought harder for the principles of good government. Almost single-handed Brooks carried on the most telling fight against the Curley machine several years ago that was recorded in that warfare. Fearless and relentless when fighting a battle against odds, Councillor Brooks is probably one of the biggest-hearted men in the district as often has been evidenced, but at no time ever was accused of being a "yes man." He fights hard, does not pull his punches and lands telling blows when he gets into the battle.

Probably no man on Beacon Hill is more respected for his views and his ability to champion these views. Always a Republican, Frank Brooks is one of the present Governor's most loyal supporters and has been called upon by Governor Saltonstall to lead many battles for good government.

Children on Outing To the Country

Children and women of the Rebecca Pomroy House, a Newton Community Chest Agency, were taken out into the country this past week to pick blueberries. Groups also attended the Esplanade concert.

The little kiddies were escorted by Miss Constance Fanning in charge of the group, assisted by several Junior Leaders to the Esplanade. It was a happy occasion, but several tired children went sound asleep in the trolleys on the way home. The same evening the Junior Leaders enjoyed hearing the members of the Newton Symphony Orchestra play familiar tunes.

When the girls brought home several quarts of blueberries to their mothers, it meant a happy day in the country and also happy days in the coming winter when delicious dishes will be unavailable. Two different groups were taken to pick the berries. The girls were taken from Two Centers Camp together with girls from the West Newton Community Center, while on Saturday several mothers and older girls worked industriously in order to bring home as many as possible.

GAS RATIONING KEEPS 'EM HOME

A large increase in the number of stay-at-homes in Newton this summer, undoubtedly due to gasoline rationing and other transportation difficulties, is reflected in the volume of reports of closed homes received by the police. Officers who receive reports at police headquarters from residents when they close their homes to go away for the summer or for shorter periods on vacations stated that little more than half of the usual number of families have made such reports this summer.

Tin Salvage Drive Starts Off Well In Newton

By R. V. Spencer

The Newton Street Department Tuesday morning told me that the collection of tin cans started off well yesterday. About fifty bushels of crushed tins were realized on their regular rounds for the collection of rubbish. Wrappers had been removed, the cans carefully rinsed, opened at both ends and flattened. Said the voice on the other end of the telephone, "When Newton people do their war work, they always do it right."

As fast as the tin is collected it is dumped into a standing truck trailer at the city yard. When loaded fully this will be hauled to a freight car "spotted" for tin scrap for this area, and when the car is loaded it will be sent immediately to a detinning plant in Pittsburgh.

When the Japs first took over 90% of the world's tin supply, as well as our tin in the United States, we were not equipped to salvage tin. So tin was not called for in any quantity up to lately. This condition has now been partly remedied in the East. Capt. Hennrikus Speaks To Local State Guard Men

The weekly drill of Newton's State Guard Company C was marked by a visit and inspection Tuesday night by Capt. George F. Hennrikus former commanding officer.

Capt. Hennrikus, who is now in the army in command of Headquarters Company of the 716 Military Police Battalion, gave a talk Tuesday night to the company after the inspection and commended the company on the progress made since its organization. Plans were completed for the rapid mobilization of the company in case of breakdown of regular transportation facilities.

An outdoor extended order drill was held under the direction of First Sergeant Edwin H. Duval.

Competition of the company rifle team has narrowed down to 15 men who will continue to shoot the rest of the week. Ten men will be chosen to represent the company at the regimental competition at Wakefield on Sunday. The other five will be alternates.

Members of the company who will not compete in the rifle shoot will go on an all-day tactical problem under the direction of Lt. Pelham Clement on Sunday. Mess will be served at the company field kitchen under the direction of Mess Sergeant Irving W. House.

1943 Campaign To Open January 21

Campaign dates for 1943 were announced this week by the Greater Boston United War Fund, opening January 21 with a mammoth rally and closing February 10 with a final "Dutch Treat" report dinner.

Participating in the campaign this year will be 48 Greater Boston communities, in addition to the 45 districts of the City of Boston. The towns of Medford, Millis, Sherborn and Sudbury will be included in the west metropolitan area.

The Greater Boston United War Fund regrets that a joint campaign with the American Red Cross cannot be arranged for 1943, says Charles C. Cabot, Fund campaign chairman, in a special United War Fund "extra" of The Bulletin, official publication of the Boston Council of Social Agencies.

Enrollment of volunteer workers for the coming campaign is way ahead of a year ago. Cabot says, in recruiting an army of more than 30,000 volunteers to help 215 health and social service agencies of the Greater Boston Community Fund keep alive and give vital community service in time of war, and to fulfill Greater Boston's obligation to its fighting men through the USO and the local Soldiers and Sailors Committee.

Letters to Alumni Bring Big Results

By the simple process of going collegiate, the boys at the Fessenden School, West Newton, are going to be able to present the British American Ambulance Corps with a brand new ambulance. Inspired by the success of alumni funds in the colleges, these youngsters took over the Fessenden alumni list and each one wrote a certain number of them asking for contributions. Apparently those letters had what it takes for $705.38 is already in the Ambulance Fund and more is coming in every day. Modestly enough, the boys regard the response to their "thumbs up" appeal as something of a miracle.

Many Gas Books Uncalled for Here

One of the features of gas rationing that is puzzling the Newton War Price and Rationing Board is that several hundred supplementary rationing books have been ready for issuance for several days but the applicants have failed to call for them although they have been notified by the Board to do so. In many cases the applicants had expressed appeals as to the urgency of supplementary supplies of gas at the time they filed the applications.

William B. Baker, chairman of the board, is particularly mystified about many owners of trucks who have failed to claim them. "The only place they could get 'S' books like to know what they are running their trucks on. Maybe they have discovered a substitute for gas."

Baker said that because of the rush, the OPA granted gas stations authority to supply gas on "credit" for the period from July 22 to 31, but after then the delivery of gasoline to the tank of a car without the presentation of a gas coupon book became illegal.

Asks Children Be Immunized

Children of pre-school age who had been immunized against diphtheria when they were six months old, or shortly thereafter, should be given a "stimulating dose" just before entering school to render immunization more effective, according to Dr. Ernest M. Morris, Newton Director of Public Health.

Records show that the trend during the past five years has been toward the immunization of children at early ages by private physicians and away from the immunization of children by the Health Department. 302 children were immunized by the Health Department this year as compared with 626 in 1937. Dr. Morris said that babies should be immunized at the age of six months or shortly thereafter and that an additional treatment should be given the same children just before they enter school.

Confirm List of Appointments

The Board of Aldermen last Monday night unanimously confirmed a list of appointment of election officers for the ensuing year which was submitted to the board by Mayor Paul M. Goddard. A warden and a clerk were appointed for duty at each precinct from the opening of the polls at 7 a. m. to the time when the results are tabulated and the ballots sealed and delivered to the City Clerk. In addition inspectors were appointed to serve in two shifts. One group is to serve while the polls are open 7 a. m. to 8 p. m., to be relieved at the later hour by the second and larger group, for the counting of ballots.

Election officers were required to pass an examination before being eligible for appointment, in accordance with a new law.

Aldermen Not To Tolerate Circumvention Of Gasoline Rationing Restrictions

Serve Notice at Meeting Monday Night: Members Have Busy Session Acting on Many Matters

The Newton Board of Aldermen served notice Monday evening that it will not countenance any attempt to circumvent the gasoline rationing restrictions by the acquisition of special license.

The board unanimously rejected a petition by the owner of an auto driving school for a second-class taxi license after Chairman Rodney C. Eaton of the franchises and licenses committee reported that the applicant had frankly admitted at a hearing before the committee that he had been denied sufficient gasoline to operate his driving school and he hoped to obtain the desired supply through the proposed taxi license.

According to Eaton, the petitioner had received a "B" book for the driving school and found it inadequate. The applicant thereupon hit upon the plan of obtaining a taxi license in the hope of receiving an "S" book.

Eaton said the committee had therefore voted to recommend the rejection of the license and also determined to make an investigation to ascertain whether any other licenses were thus circumventing the rationing regulations.

The board appropriated $952.61 for the salary of an additional assistant chief of the Fire Department from Sept. 1 to the end of the year. A Civil Service examination has been held for the appointment of two assistant chiefs, but the list of eligible candidates has not been established as yet. Nevertheless, two acting assistant chiefs will serve until permanent appointments are made.

The sum of $5,700 was appropriated for the Street Department for the construction of a surface drain on Otis st., Newtonville, from Lowell ave. westerly.

The sum of $4,000 was appropriated for maintenance of drains on Adams st. the amount provided in the budget.

The Street Department was also allotted $550 for the construction of a drain on Devonshire rd., Ward 5 and $800 for a similar project on Larkspur rd., Ward 5. The Water Department was granted $850 for the completion of the construction of a cement lining in the 12-inch water main on Waverley ave., from Ward st. to Church st.

The sum of $3,375 was appropriated for the construction of roads providing access to the filter bowls on the "upper reservation" in place of the present hazardous roads.

The Street Commissioner was given authority to sell the chassis of three old dump trucks.

The board voted "no action necessary" on the proposed appropriation of $1,650 for the moving of the blacksmith shop from the front of the Crafts street yard to the rear of the yard. It was found that the necessary copper wire for the project could not be obtained because of government

The following men from Newton will leave Boston, August 20, en route to Air Force Classification Center, Santa Ana, California:

Paul R. Brown, 215 Mill st., Newtonville; Robert H. Garritt, Jr., 72 Perkins st., W. Newton; Carl E. Haering, Jr., 321 Winchester st., Newton Hills; George H. Keyho, 135 Winchester st., Newton Hills; Gilbert L. Myers, 63 Orchard ave., W. Newton; Felix M. Rogers, 398 Waltham st., W. Newton; Joseph E. Ryan, 466 Albe-marle rd., Newton; Raymond R. Wisner, Jr., 15 Duncklee st., Newton Hills.

A collegian in uniform would be a fitting description of Stanley Murray Smith, 21 of Newton, who is now studying at the Naval Training School for radiomen at the University of Wisconsin.

He is receiving training in international code, radio theory and laboratory, typing, and spelling. Also, he is getting advanced training in military drill, first aid, and naval procedure. Upon completion of the 4-month course, he will be eligible for a petty officer's rating of radioman, third class.

Smith, who enlisted in the Navy April, went through recruit training at the U. S. Naval Training Station, Great Lakes, Ill. After finishing school here, he will be assigned to active duty at sea, or some other naval shore station. Bluejackets in training here are quartered in dormitories on the campus which have been converted into barracks.

Edward P. Scarlett, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Scarlett of Jepson court, West Newton, and Thomas G. Norton, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas J. Norton of 286 River st., West Newton, have completed their preliminary training in the United States Marine Corps and have been assigned to the Naval Training School at Toledo, Ohio, for a 16-week intensive course. Major Leon Larsen, commanding officer of the Marine Detachment, announced.

The men have been selected for specialized training in the yeoman school as a result of high marks received in their basic general classification examinations and a demonstration of an aptitude for this type of work.

Both men graduated from St. Bernard's Grammar School in West Newton. Ed Scarlett graduated from Newton High, class of 1942, while Tom Norton graduated from St. Mary's High School, Waltham, class of 1941. They joined the Marines together in April and trained at Parris Island.

Herbert W. Reinhard, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank A. Reinhard of 257 Cabot st., Newton, and son-in-law of William T. A. Fitzgerald, register of deeds for Suffolk county, has received an appointment as first lieutenant in the Chemical Warfare Service.

Lieutenant Reinhard was graduated from M. I. T. in 1921, and is a veteran of the World War. He was engaged in business in St. Louis for some years and in recent months has served as a civilian engineer in the chemical warfare branch of the War Department.

Keesler Field, Miss., Aug. 20.—Trained skilled Airplane Mechanics, 59 soldier-students from Massachusetts today were graduated from the Technical Training Command's school here, ready for active duty "on the line" with the tactical units of the Army Air Forces.

Newton men among the graduates were Ernest R. Bryson, 15 Chase st., Newton Centre, and Gregory G. Candis, 226 Commonwealth ave., Newton Centre.

The 19-week course just completed by these soldiers included in aircraft maintenance fundamentals, structures, hydraulics, propellers, fuel systems, electrical systems, instruments, engine operation and inspection of single and multi-engine planes.

NAPIER FIELD, Dothan, Ala., August 11.—Coming into the final stage of his cadet training, Cadet Howell B. Coates, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Coates, 108 Windsor rd., Waban, has just arrived at this advanced flying field, it was announced today by the Napier Field Public Relations Office.

Cadet Coates is already a good pilot but when he completes this training he will be ready to step in the Navy's most powerful planes and fly them with a skill that augurs no good for the Axis.

United States Naval Training Station, Newport, R. I., Aug. 20.—Alger Paul Shapollis, 20-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Shapollis of 510 Centre st., Newton, and Harvey Edmund Denault, 19-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Denault of 74 Walker st., Newtonville, have been graduated from the School of the Recruit at this station, and are now on a seven-day leave. Upon return, they will be assigned to a trade school, shore station, or to duty with a ship of the fleet.

Shapollis graduated in 1940 from Newton High School, and, as a member of the Newton "Y" Swimming Team, has won the Y. M. C. A. Massachusetts and Rhode Island title in the 220-yard free style swimming competition. While in high school, he was a member of the H. Y. Before enlisting in the Navy, he was employed as a carpenter in the CCC, and as a patent maker for the Eastern Cement Stone Company in Malden.

Denault attended Newton Trade School and has been employed as a carpenter in the CCC, and as a patent maker for the Eastern Cement Stone Company in Malden.

Father and Son Called in Draft

A father and son, each holding an honorable discharge from the Army, are under orders to report on Friday of this week for induction into the Army as selectees of Local Board 114 of Newton.

The father, Thomas William Petrie, 44, a widower, now living on Crescent st., Waltham, served 18 months in France in the Medical Corps in the first World War. His only son, William Dwight Petrie, 21, was a member of the National Guard when it was inducted into Federal service in January of 1941, but was discharged about a year ago after he accidentally shot off one of his toes while in training at Plattsburg. He has tried to re-enlist several times since then and hopes that he will be accepted this time, in view of the lower physical standards adopted by the Army recently.

George W. Petrie, 43, single of 71 Rutland st., Waltham, a brother of the elder Petrie, has preceded his brother and nephew into the Army as a selectee, having been inducted last week with a group sent out by Local Board 155 of the first World War, having served with the Yankee Division in France during the war, and with the Army of Occupation in Germany for two years after the war. He has been given a 14-day furlough and will go on active duty on Aug. 23.

Thomas and his son resided on Boylston st., Newton Centre, at the time that they registered for Selective Service.

Plans for the establishment of a Roll of Honor inscribed with the names of all Newton men who are serving this country are being made by a sub-committee of the Citizens Committee for Service to Newton Service Men.

Day Notes

The second Nature Night of the season under the direction of Professor Daye was held on last Saturday night with the entire Camp attending. A survey of the animals about Camp; their habits and food, and even the introduction of a live snake before the audience were the topics discussed. A question and answer period completed the part played by Professor Daye. A survey of the animals about Camp; their habits and food, and even the introduction of a live snake before the audience were the topics discussed.

Arthur Barnard of Manhasset, Long Island, conducted Sailing Night at the Newton Red Cross. Many of the finer points of sailboat construction. He also traced briefly the history of the United States Navy, and in answer to a question from the audience named the ranks of the Navy.

Holly Hollister of Middlebury, head of Life Saving introduced the first time in Camp a demonstration of Life Saving. All members of the Camp were required to attend and after Hollister showed the fundamentals of resuscitation, each camper with partner practiced the same method. The purpose of the demonstration was to acquaint even the smallest of the Midgets with the fundamentals required in restoring breathing to a person rescued from the water. This was in line with the camp practice of furthering National Defense.

The annual award of the Camp Cup given to the best all-around camper chosen by the counselors from each of the three divisions was voted to be discontinued this season. A shortage of metal was the determining factor, but the Camp authorities also felt that the award was no longer any deeper merit, and so made the revolutionary move.

Lazy Day came to Camp Day on last Tuesday when all boys were allowed to remain in bed until a later hour than usual, and breakfast was served until late in the morning. As always happens the great favorite among the campers was to have a day when they were allowed to stay at home earlier before. In the evening a program with the celebrated camp entertainer, Joe Lorraine, was held. Mr. Lorraine served in two wars of the United States, and is a great favorite among the summer campers. After his stay at Camp he left for Lake Winnepesaukee where he will visit six camps on that famous lake.

Mexicans and Music
Music is a passion with the Mexicans, and every town plaza has its bandstand for evening concerts. The marimba is a more primitive instrument than the brasses used in band concerts, but when skillfully played it is exceedingly effective. The wooden sound boxes give resonance to the tones produced by striking strips of hard wood in the same manner as a xylophone.

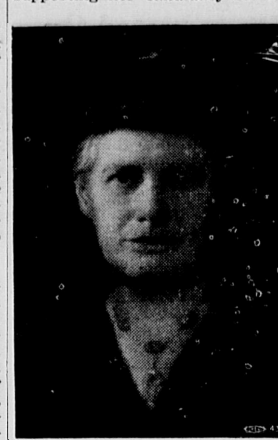

The Phantom City
In the days of long ago, when the Spanish galleons were being plundered by the bold adventurers who sailed out upon the seas, stories were told of a city whose houses were roofed with gold, in the region of the great Orinoco river. The legends fired the imaginations of men and sent them to search for this fabulous "golden land" and the phantom city of Manoa.

Wicked Weasels
If there were too many weasels, they would quickly wipe out all small birds, animals and reptiles in the country. And although prolific and quite safe from the attacks of birds and beasts of prey, they do not become numerous . . . largely because they destroy themselves . . . by fighting with each other . . . while the animal is a ruthless killer, he has his value to mankind . . . in destroying rats and mice.

Millions in Pelts
Headquarters of the giant Canadian fur trade is in the city of Montreal and Des Gosseliers, Montreal, Province of Quebec, is the clearing center for millions of dollars' worth of pelts every year.

Miss Nichols Seeks Nomination

In the third Councillor District which includes Newton, Waltham, Watertown, Weston and Lincoln, as well as Wards 4, 5, 21 and 22 of Boston, Marian Clarke Nichols is supporting her candidacy for the Republican nomination to the Governor's Council on the ground of her exceptional knowledge of public administration both within and without the State House.

As Secretary of the Women's Auxiliary of the Massachusetts Civil Service Reform Association since 1903 Miss Nichols has not only worked and fought for the defense and advance of our Civil Service laws but has been a consultant and adviser to Governors, Civil Service Commissioners, Legislative Committees and Legislators on account of her expert knowledge of the intricacies of the Civil Service Laws and Rules.

An active supporter of the extension of the Civil Service Law to County Penal Institutions her strenuous persistency led to the one inclusion of the Merit System to a county institution—the House of Correction at Deer Island.

Frequently chiefs and members of police and fire forces asked her help in preparing material in support of the extension of the Civil Service Law to their departments. When in 1911 Newton voted to accept the extension of the Civil Service Act to the city of police, each voter had been furnished with a circular prepared by Miss Nichols.

Due to the strong support received not only from the Branches and membership of the Massachusetts Civil Service Reform Auxiliary but from the women's organizations throughout the State the work of President Charles W. Eliot, Richard H. Dana, Arthur H. Brooks and other leaders of the Massachusetts Civil Service Association was immeasurably strengthened.

For fifteen years (1918-1934) Miss Nichols was Chairman of the Civil Service Department of the Massachusetts State Federation of Women's Clubs thus having an opportunity through addresses, radio talks, and published material, to bring to the attention of the voters by written messages to keep our Clubwomen well posted on both National and local Civil Service issues. First hand information was also given through study courses on State administration with State officials as speakers supplemented by visits to State institutions.

Though the integrity and efficiency of the Civil Service Law has been her major activity Miss Nichols has likewise been vitally interested in educating the voters as to the significance of pending legislation relative to labor, health, civic, social welfare and other progressive legislation.

Under her guidance the Legislative Council was for ten years (1920-1930) an active forum for discussion at weekly meetings and a clearing house for legislative information through bulletins and leaflets giving the pros and cons of important measures.

Born and educated in Boston Miss Nichols is a graduate of Radcliffe and as chairman of the Radcliffe Distant Work Committee from 1907 to 1917 at a crucial period in the college's life helped to turn Radcliffe from a localized institution to centre for students throughout the country.

In 1915 she was the first woman to be elected as a member of the Council of the National Civil Service Reform League and has had the broadening influence of working with foremost Civil Service Reformers of this century, including Charles J. Bonaparte, Joseph Choate and William Dudley Foulke.

Though formerly she served as officer, chairman or member of many organizations including the Boston City Federation, the Boston League of Women Voters, Beacon Hill Association, Women's Educational and Industrial Union and Massachusetts Civic League, in recent years she has concentrated more on her reference library which is attributed by Prof. George C. S. Benson as supplying a third of the material in his book on "The Administration of the Civil Service in Massachusetts" and in acting as consultant for hundreds of persons who turn to her to solve their Civil Service difficulties.

Her knowledge, her time and her resources are always at the disposal for any individual grievance or any civic cause which has for its objective the righting of just wrongs or the maintaining or raising the standards of public service.

Wood and Charcoal
Wood and charcoal are the two fuels most used in Mexican homes, for furnace fires are unknown in that mild climate. Many houses have no chimneys even, for charcoal makes little smoke. Peddlers carrying huge bundles of wood may be seen everywhere. Usually they are barefooted, with bright black eyes and Indian features, and look too small for the load, but the Mexican people are wiry and strong, if not very tall.

Brockton Fair To Show War Effort

Converted from its peacetime exhibition role, the Brockton Fair has been enlisted for the task of showing its throngs of visitors how, from army jeeps to incendiary bombs and wartime menus, a fighting American is striking back at the Axis.

Crowds attending the 1942 event to be held at Brockton from Sept. 13 to 19 will find it geared to the nation's war program, with simulated bombing attacks, gas decontamination tests, women's defense corps rescues, civilian defense displays and similar features heading up the daily programs.

Replacing the traditional fireworks displays, a series of incendiary "raids" has been arranged by Secretary Frank H. Kingman to climax the grandstand programs each night of the fair. Employment of genuine incendiary explosives, to be propelled earthward with sufficient velocity to penetrate a two-story frame house erected in front of the grandstand, is planned by William G. Sweetman, civilian defense officer in charge of the feature.

The Massachusetts Committee on Public Safety, headed by Channing H. Cox, is building a series of displays to depict the activities of each branch of the state defense organization, and dramatizing, for housewives, the "Foods for Fighting Americans" theme. The U. S. Signal Corps, the salvage campaign, wartime posters and other military subjects will be represented in other exhibits.

On Governor's Day, Thursday, Sept. 17, the Massachusetts Women's Defense corps will present a one-hour demonstration of their work, while an elaborate chemical warfare "school," showing defense measures against incendiaries, poison gas and bombs will be held the morning. Placement tests in these demonstrations onlookers will be invited to take an actual part in snuffing out magnesium bombs.

Workrooms To Reopen Soon

Mrs. Charles E. Spencer, Jr., Chairman of the Newton Red Cross, announces that the recent army quota has been completed and the workrooms are being closed until early in September. Since the end of June, 123,340 dressings have been made in the Newton Surgical dressing workrooms.

A new quota is expected in a few weeks, and the re-opening of the workrooms and a definite schedule will be announced at that time.

BASIC FACTS ABOUT POPULATION OF NEWTON

A folder containing the basic facts about the population of Newton, taken from the 1940 census figures, now available, has just been received by Manager Harry H. Kay of the Metropolitan Life Insurance Company, from his New York Home Office. Data are given for the United States, the State and the City.

The final figure for the population of the United States as of April 1, 1940, is 131,669,275. This is an increase of 1.2% over the last supplemented 1930.

Massachusetts had a population of 4,316,721, according to the Federal Census, which was an increase of 1.6% over the previous decade. Coming to the city proper, the figures given are 69,873 in 1940 as compared with 65,276 in 1930, an increase of 7% during the previous 10 years.

Considering the population according to sex, it is interesting to note the proportion of males to females in the city. The exact figures are males 32,087; females 37,786.

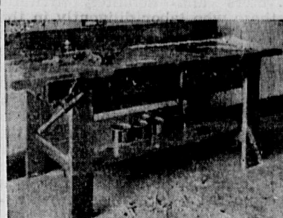

As an interpretation of the composition and character of the community, the figures for race and nativity given show that there were 11,034 foreign born whites in the city, or 15.8% of the population. The record lists 680 negroes and 32 of other races.

Workmen Needed At Pearl Harbor

New England workmen are again needed to help avenge Pearl Harbor.

Skilled shipbuilding, shipfitting and aviation craftsmen are needed to help the Pacific Fleet push the Japs back to Tokio, it was announced by the United States Employment Service office at 9 Beacon st., which is helping the Civil Service Commission recruit more men who can repair or overhaul fighting ships and planes at the Naval Base at Pearl Harbor.

"News of the Solomon Islands and Kiska Bay engagements following the battles of Midway and the Coral Sea emphasizes the importance of the civilian personnel at Pearl Harbor, who are doing savage work following the December 7 sneak attack has been accomplished in half the time originally estimated and where ships then given up for lost have been reclaimed for fighting ships," the Manager said.

"Wage rates at Pearl Harbor are higher today than they were in January," he continued, "but we know that it was patriotism rather than the pay envelope which induced thousands of New England workers to volunteer in January to use welding torch or monkey wrench to help the Navy fight the Japs."

Among those needed are a number of shipfitter helpers as well as journeymen, craftsmen and helpers on a wide range of aviation and ship jobs, with wages up to $1.49 an hour according to the work, the United States Employment Service Manager pointed out in asking men who can meet the qualifications and who are willing to sign up here to help America's fighting forces have equipment in fighting trim to avenge Pearl Harbor.

For the helper positions, men in 1-A Selective Service classifications will not be considered, he explained, while all will be required to show good physical condition and general suitability for important war service appointments.

Full information will be provided to anyone making inquiry at any local office of the United States Employment Service, the Manager declared, asking those now employed at full skill in essential war industry to be prepared to secure a release from their present employer. He added that similar provisions apply also to Panama Canal Zone openings for which men are also being recruited. The Manager also declared that the First District Civil Service Commission office has arranged to give prompt notification to anyone rejected for any cause.

Full information is also available from the local Secretary of the Board of Civil Service Examiners located in the Post Office Building, or from the First District Office of the Civil Service Commission located in the Federal Building in Boston.

While families may not accompany workmen to Hawaii, assurances were given that suitable housing and dining facilities are available at reasonable prices at government operated establishments.

The jobs for which applicants are urgently needed include:

Aircraft Mechanic (General), Aircraft Mechanic (Motors), Aircraft Fabric Worker, Aircraft Instrument Mechanic, Anglesmith, Other Fires; Blacksmith, Other Fires; Boilermaker, Buffer and Polisher; Chipping and Calker; Iron; Coppersmith, Electrician (Aviation), Engineman (Crawler Diesel), Flange Turner, Hammer Runner, Other; Heat Treater, Helper, Boilermaker; Helper, Pipefitter; Helper, Rigger; Helper, Shipfitter; Helper, Welder; Joiner; Holder-On, Instrument, Joiner; Locksmith, Machinist (Outside); Metalsmith (Aviation); Parachute Repairman, Patternmaker, Ribstitcher (Aviation), Rigger, Shipfitter, Toolmaker (Aviation).

The last opportunity in this city to say farewell to what has been known for many years as Co. C, 5th Mass. regiment, but which was merged into the Federal service on Wednesday, will occur today when the Company, escorted by the Newton Constabulary, will parade from its present camp in Clafin Field.

55 YEARS AGO

Newton Graphic, August 13, 1887

A car with an electric motor attachment made a trial trip over the Newton and Watertown railroad last Tuesday.

Members of the Eliot church were delighted to see Thursday morning a force of 25 men and a dozen teams at work on the site of the old Eliot church building, under the direction of Timothy Stewart.

The work on the addition to the First Unitarian church, West Newton, is progressing rapidly. A cellar has been dug under the new portion, the church has been cut in two and the rear half moved back and the two parts connected by a flooring. An addition has been built on to the church parlor along the entire length of the side nearest the railroad and an oblong shaped room 24 by 19 feet built on from the stage, increasing the seating capacity very largely.

A lady here in Newton Centre tied a bit of cloth to a spoke of her carriage wheel the other day to measure the distance to Wellesley by counting the revolutions, but after a mile or two she did what the man did who tried to get up perpetual motion, To wit: She gave it up.

50 YEARS AGO

Newton Graphic, August 12, 1892

Any one finding a black fan with pansies hand painted on one side, between Chapel and Pearl sts., Nonantum, will be rewarded by leaving it at Russell's drug store.

Work on the foundation of the new school house to be built on Cedar st., Newton Lower Falls, will be commenced very soon. The building work has been given to several contractors to figure on.

The herdic which has been a familiar object at the depot in Newton Centre has been replaced by a light canopy top carriage.

The Gamewell Co. of Newton Highlands, will give their employees their annual excursion down the harbor, Saturday, and also furnish a sumptuous dinner.

25 YEARS AGO

Newton Graphic, August 16, 1917

The failure of the Local Board of Exemptions to obtain the full quota of 147 demanded by the War Department from the first call of 300 men has necessitated a second call for 398 more men.

The last opportunity in this city to say farewell to what has been known for many years as Co. C, 5th Mass. regiment, but which was merged into the Federal service on Wednesday, will occur today when the Company, escorted by the Newton Constabulary, will parade from its present camp in Clafin Field.

SMALL MERCHANTS OPPOSE INVENTORY CONTROL

It has been argued that governmental control of store inventories would be of benefit to small retailers. But, according to a survey recently conducted by the New York State Council of Retail Merchants, the small merchants have very different ideas.

Questionnaires were sent by the Council to merchants in 15 different retail categories. Only small merchants doing a gross business volume of $10,000 to $500,000 a year were queried. And only eleven per cent of these stores favored inventory limitation. The small merchants, in short, were overwhelmingly opposed to it. It is just the first step toward socialized retailing and actual government commissaries.

The results of this survey are certainly not surprising. Retail merchandising, whether large or small, has of necessity accepted many drastic controls. It has done that without complaint, because it believes them necessary to the anti-inflation campaign. But retail merchandising can see no reason why additional controls which are not justified by war necessity should be imposed.

The government now completely regulates all industrial production and distribution. It has complete authority over prices for practically all goods. Under these conditions, the inventory question will automatically take care of itself. If the government finds it necessary in the future to limit inventories, all it has to do is to further restrict the production of civilian goods. But once authority is granted officials, they immediately seek greater authority.

Merchandising—and this goes for independent stores and chain systems alike—is doing a fine job on behalf of the consumer—and it is doing it under conditions of unprecedented difficulty. There is no reason whatsoever why retailing should now be saddled with sweeping and arbitrary inventory restrictions.

TWENTY-FIVE YEARS OF MEDICAL PROGRESS

Twenty-five years is a mighty brief period of time as history goes—but in that time the American people have shown a remarkable growth in their physical stature. The Army is authority for that statement. The average height and weight of the men in our present Army is substantially greater than the average in our World War I army.

That has been the result of a number of factors, one of the most important of which has been advances made in American medical and health practices. In the years between 1917 and 1942, the medical progress made in this country was literally extraordinary. New and successful cures were found for serious diseases. Advanced methods of caring for mothers and children were developed. Great strides were taken in the science of nutrition. A definite betterment in the physical well-being of the people was the consequence.

It is generally believed that the American Army is physically unsurpassed—as the magnificent performance of our individual soldiers in combat proves. The army is simply a cross-section of the American people. And the American people enjoy the highest standards of medical care which human knowledge and a free medical profession make possible.

NOT ENOUGH STEEL

Henry J. Kaiser, the famous shipbuilder, recently said that ship production has been hampered by a steel shortage. In Oregon yards alone, he added, five more ships could have been delivered during a late 50-day period if more steel had been available.

Insufficient steel is also slowing the production of other basic war needs. And that is the compelling reason why every pound of steel should be conserved. Not one pound of steel should be used for any construction which is not immediately necessary.

The St. Lawrence power project and similar uncalculated political schemes are cases in point. If Congress should approve them a gigantic quantity of steel would be diverted to their construction. Those projects would not come into service for four years and perhaps more. And in the meantime, industries upon which our fighting forces depend for supplies NOW would have to do with less.

On top of that, the St. Lawrence and kindred experiments would require an enormous amount of labor, much of it highly skilled. Paul McNutt has been pointing out that we are definitely on the verge of a manpower shortage in a number of basic war industries. The more labor we use on non-essentials, the less labor we will have available for essentials.

In any period, these experiments in state socialism are of a highly-debatable character. In this period, their construction would amount to criminal waste of our resources—materials, men and money alike.

We are fighting a war to save ourselves from the Hitler state socialism idea.

Given Year For Bogus Prescription

A year in the House of Correction was imposed in the Newton District Court last Thursday on Thomas M. O'Connor, 49, of Dexter ave., Watertown, by Judge W. Lloyd Allen on presenting a false narcotic prescription to a Newton druggist.

Wilfred Chagnon, commissioner of the State Board of Pharmacy, at whose drug store the prescription was presented, told the court that similar complaints had been received from all over the state. The defendant said that "knowing the textures of a narcotic user," his sympathy for one he had met in Watertown had prompted him to take the prescription to be filled for him. He said he had been an addict himself, but since N. J. who were fraternity brothers of the groom at Bowdoin College.

The doctor whose name was signed to the prescription testified that it was a forgery. Patrolman Michael Connolly who arrested the defendant testified that O'Connor was sober at the time of his arrest as did also Captain Vediccio who questioned the prisoner at headquarters. Lieut. Crowley and Sergeant Bannon investigated the defendant's story that he had been given the prescription by a Watertown man but could find nothing to substantiate the story.

Patrolman James McAuliffe, who was at the Riverside station of the Metropolitan police nearby, rushed to their assistance in the police launch. The rescue climaxed one of the busiest days on the river for years. Eight other canoes overturned during the day but the accidents occurred near shore and the occupants succeeded in reaching the river bank unassisted.

City Fair To Be Biggest In U. S.

The Advertising Club of Boston's big Victory Harvest Show scheduled for Horticultural Hall, September 28, 29 and 30, has our new crop of city gardeners "all a flutter." They are as busy as bees nursing their prize vegetables to maturity in the hope that their exhibits will capture a share of the more than 300 prizes consisting of War Bonds and War Stamps that will be awarded the winning exhibitors.

This business of exhibiting their proud harvest is going to be new to a lot of them. How to do it? What to do? These questions were answered in a statement released by Edward I. Farrington, Secretary of The Massachusetts Horticultural Society, who are co-operating with The Advertising Club of Boston in staging this great exhibition.

Third War Relief Garden Party Held

The third in the series of War Relief garden parties was given by Mrs. Sarah S. Stevens at her home, Hickory Cliff, 1190 Boylston st., Newton Upper Falls, and was held Thursday evening, August 13th.

This gathering was a picnic for the Youths Temperance Council, who are working to "Defend Our Defenders." Young people from Newton, Needham, Watertown, Cambridge, Brookline and Boston were present. They sang the Y. T. C. songs and were shown colored movies of Washington, D. C., by Ezra Stevens who visited there recently.

Mrs. Anne Bennett, the State Counselor, spoke to the children about the game room in Boston that has been donated for their pleasure. She also spoke about the importance of learning that alcohol is a narcotic and is dangerous to the human system. The Y. T. U. is a school in itself, and our young need this training.

Mrs. Mabel E. Randall, Counselor for Middlesex County, and Mrs. Marion Fernstrom, State Counselor for Norfolk County, acted as hostesses.

Does Campaigning Without Gasoline

Former Senator Sybil H. Holmes of Brookline, "the Gasless Candidate" for the Republican nomination for State Treasurer, said today, "I have not applied for any gasoline to be used in my state-wide campaign and I do not intend to ask for any."

"I am well able to use the railroads for long hops from Boston to the areas I wish to visit," she explained, "and friends and supporters have already volunteered to use what small portions of their precious gasoline allotments will be necessary to take me from railroad stations to nearby communities to have me meet their friends and neighbors."

"This type of campaign travel is not confining. I have considerable time while on trains and buses to care for some of the many details of the campaign which would otherwise fall on the shoulders of my friends."

"The lack of gasoline has not affected my campaign in any way. I have been able to meet with people in every section of the state. Conducted long before we depended on gasoline, and I do not believe that I should drain the much-needed oil supply to carry on a primary campaign when adequate methods of transportation are available for the long hops."

TIGHTER PRICE CONTROL COMING

Regional executives of the Office of Price Administration, speaking at the first Wartime Business Clinic for retail merchants and smaller businessmen at Babson Institute, Babson Park, on Wednesday, August 19 predicted stricter enforcement of price control regulations.

George H. Taylor, Regional Price Executive, said that we are entering a period when we must turn to legal enforcement and the punishment of those who are violating the General Maximum Price Regulation.

Livingston Hall, Regional Attorney, said that there is widespread noncompliance on many items on which a shortage exists, such as second-hand tires. Also compliance is far from complete on products on which prices are based on formulas established by the Office of Price Administration.

Prices are being maintained on most items of which there is a surplus, according to Mr. Hall.

Retail merchants were urged to post, mark and file their ceiling prices on cost of living commodities. This regulation is vital to compliance.

George Merritt, Regional Relations Executive, Office of Price Administration, discussed the O.P.A. educational program to inform merchants and consumers of the price control act and its operation.

The Clinic was led by Martin E. Adamo, President of the Adamo Drug Company, Boston, who introduced Richard Cook, President of the Smaller Businessmen's Association, who discussed the credit of the small business under price ceilings.

FIVE POUNDS OF SUGAR ON STAMP 8

Stamp No. 8 of the War Ration Books will be valid for the purchase of five pounds of sugar any time during the ten-week period between Aug. 23 and October 31.

Kenneth B. Backman, OPA administrator, asked consumers and dealers to note that this is not a bonus ration. OPA simply has consolidated the five stamps which normally would be worth 1 pound each during the ten-week period into the Stamp No. 8.

Backman said that the period was selected because it terminates at the end of a calendar month, allowing future rationing periods, if desirable, to be set to coincide with the calendar month.

He further added that this method will allow retailers to dispose of sugar stocks now held in 5, 10 and 25-pound packages.

WEST NEWTON COMMUNITY CENTRE, INC.

Two Centres' Camp, a day camp operated for the members of the Pomroy House, Newton, and the West Newton Community Centre, Inc., closed its sixth season Friday, August 14. One hundred and forty-nine boys and girls have participated in the camping program for a total of 797 camper days.

Two Centres' Camp is located in Saxtonville. Groups of children from Newton and West Newton who are participants in the winter program of Pomroy House and West Newton Community Centre, Inc., enjoy the privilege of spending five days at camp. Two groups of boys and five groups of girls have enjoyed the seven-week program, which includes handiwork, games, stories, free play, nature study, swimming instruction and recreational swimming daily.

Miss Helen I. Sandstrom, Executive of the Pomroy House, and Miss Gertrude MacCallum, Executive of the West Newton Community Centre, Inc., are the directors of Two Centres' Camp, and were assisted by Miss Renée Hammond of Cohituate.

In addition to the camping program, both organizations have been carrying on work at home, with special recreational activities held daily at the Pomroy House, and a program of special trips for adult groups at the West Newton Centre.

A group of twelve men and women have just completed the twelve-week American Red Cross First Aid Class at the West Newton Community Centre, Inc. This class has been given under the leadership of Dr. E. A. Marcoux under the auspices of the Newton Chapter of the American Red Cross.

HOMES FOUNDATION RECOMMENDS WAR BONDS SAVINGS FOR POST-WAR BUILDING

In the midst of all their activities in an all-out war, statesmen and industrialists alike are planning a post-war America of peace and prosperity. Individual families should follow their lead, according to a Northeastern Homes Foundation statement, helping the war production job by keeping their present homes repaired and livable, and saving, through War Bonds, for the home they can build to enjoy the peace.

"Make it last" is the slogan for today," says Paul S. Collier, Director of Northeastern Homes Foundation. "It applies as well to the house we live in as to the car we drive. The publicity given to car and gas and tire shortages has made us all better, more careful drivers. The same consciousness of shortages of plumbing, wiring, and construction materials, will make us better householders. And just as the necessity of driving at 40 miles instead of 60 has shown us a lot of beauty in our country that we didn't see before, a study of our homes and their needs will show us possibilities for making really comfortable and attractive a house which we have thought outmoded or outgrown."

"House Beautiful's" Maintenance and Building Manual for 1942 lists fifty things to do to maintain your house. None of them are expensive; none of them use a lot of the critical materials; most of them are jobs that can be done without professional assistance. All of them will contribute to the life of your home, to your comfort in the hard and busy months ahead, and to the whole country's big job of winning the war."

"Repair now—and Buy Bonds for the home you are dreaming about building, after the war."

A booklet with suggestions for home improvements will be sent on receipt of a post card addressed to Northeastern Homes Foundation, 82 St. Paul st., Rochester, New York, or Peek Lumber Co., Newtonville ave., Newton.

The Brookline Co-operative Bank has recently sold the two-family house at 23-25 Brackett st., Brighton, to Homes, Inc., of Newton.

The Brookline Co-operative Bank has recently sold the two-family house at 23-25 Brackett st., Brighton, to Homes, Inc., of Newton.

Alvord Bros., Realtors of Newton, Wellesley and Weston, report having sold the property located at 45 Verdande rd., in the Newton Countryside section of Newton

Highlands. This Early American type home, which was built in 1940, is arranged with a large living room having a fireplace, dining room, modern kitchen, lavatory and screened porch on the first floor; a large master bedroom, three family chambers, and a large tiled bathroom with tub and built-in stall shower on the second floor; in the basement is a game room and laundry. The dwelling is insulated, and there is an attached garage. The nicely landscaped lot contains about eight thousand square feet.

Salvatore and Viola Pagliuca of Newton, Mass., gave title to Paige B. Coons of Edgewood, Rhode Island, who, with his family, has already occupied his new home. Alvord Bros. represented all parties in the transaction.

Dodd & Drake report that final papers have been recorded in the sale of the 7-room, slate-roofed Colonial home at No. 551 Parker st., Newton Centre, from Benjamin Zakon of Brookline to Mr. and Mrs. George M. Proctor of 40 Park st., Brookline. This modern home sets deep on a level, landscaped lot of 13,370 square feet with a winding flagstone walk from Parker st. The house has four bedrooms and two tiled baths, with a guest lavatory on the first floor. There is a basement playroom with fireplace and an attached single garage. The rear lot extends back over 200 feet and is shaded by several fruit trees. For tax purposes the property is assessed by the City of Newton for $8,700 of which $1,200 is on the land.

The office of John T. Burns & Sons, Inc., report that final papers have gone to record in the transfer of the property located at 40 Lodge rd., West Newton. The house comprising 7 rooms, 2 baths, has with it a garage and 5500 square feet of land. The Brighton Cooperative Bank was the grantor and Clotilda Profita and Dina Moriana were the purchasers. The assessment for tax purposes is $7000.

Howe Associates report another recent sale in the Newtonville section of Newton. The property is located at 206 Mill st. and consists of a substantially built, modern, frame Dutch Colonial type house containing six rooms, sun parlor and two tiled baths. The lot comprises an area of nearly 10,000 square feet of land on which is also located a two-car cement garage. For tax purposes the property is assessed for $8,600. The outside of the property was recently painted and the new owners Mr. and Mrs. Reginald H. Macaulay will occupy as a permanent home after redecorating the interior. Title was given by the Newton Savings Bank. Both parties were represented by Howe Associates.

The one family frame dwelling and garage at 63 Islington rd., Auburndale, has been sold through the office of R. M. Patterson for West Newton Savings Bank. This parcel carries an assessed value of $4550 of which $550 is on 4,440 sq. ft. land. Title has been taken by Norman S. Knights who will occupy after considerable renovation of the property.

To make one pound of aluminum requires the use of as much electric current as is used in the average American home over a period of more than three days. Total private and public construction activity for the first half of 1942 in the continental United States amounted to more than 6 billion dollars. The electric generators on a big U. S. battleship or carrier could fill the electric power requirements of a city the size of Newark, N. J. Such warships have power plants generating an output two-thirds as great as that of TVA's Norris Dam. W.P.B. has appealed to the nation's wholesalers and retailers to "make a clean sweep" of all salvageable critical materials on their premises. The Office of Defense Transportation has announced that by cutting out duplicate passenger train and bus schedules in the first half of the year the railways have gained 114 locomotives and 553 passenger cars to meet the needs of war traffic. U. S. war expenditures in July reached $184,400,000 a day, a gain of 16.3 per cent over June.

Shortest Railroad
One of the world's shortest railroads is the Chicago Short Line, operating ten engines, 53 freight cars and a caboose on 1.12 miles of track in the steel mill district.

Thomas E. Morahan of 220 Tremont st., Newton, was drawn for jury services by the Board of Aldermen last Monday night and must report to the Superior Court at Cambridge on Monday, Sept. 14, the day before election. Morahan is running for state senator in both the Republican and Democratic primaries. He recently figured in the news when he filed a protest with the State Ballot Law Commission against the candidacy of his Republican opponent, Benjamin J. Bowen of West Newton. He charged that because Bowen is chairman of the Newton Board of Public Welfare, which handles Federal funds, he, Bowen, is ineligible under the Hatch Act to run for public elective office. The protest was dismissed. Others drawn for jury duty were: Richard J. Scullin, 74 Brackett rd.; Carter H. Hoyt, 83 Sumner st.; Hilton A. Hanley, 15 Hovey st., for criminal business first session Superior Court, Sept. 9; and Franklin R. Webber, 1484 Beacon st., Waban, for Civil business, first session, Sept. 14.

State Legislature

Following up last week's paragraph on "Double-header" candidates, it is only fair to point out that Thomas E. Morahan is not the only local candidate in this category. The other gentleman is Hans W. Lundstrom of 155 Summer st., Newton Centre, who also seeks both Republican and Democratic nominations for the State Senate in the Middlesex and Suffolk districts. The other candidate for the G. O. P. nomination for the Senate is Benjamin J. Bowen of West Newton, who served with distinction for a number of years as chairman of the Finance Committee of the Board of Aldermen. When the voters of the Fourth Middlesex District go to the polls on Sept. 15th they will find the name of John Finelli of 45 Ashmont ave. on the ballot. Mr. Finelli made a public statement on Aug. 12th at a largely attended political gathering in Newtonville, announcing his withdrawal from the fight. I am sure, therefore, that it is Mr. Finelli's desire that the voters in this district should refrain from voting for him. Consequently, Rep. Loomis Patrick, now seeking his second term, and Alderman George E. Rawson of 22 Marlboro st. are, in reality, unopposed. Inasmuch as the Democrats have chosen to offer no nominations for the House this year, it is now a sure thing that Newton's four Representatives in the lower branch of the Legislature for 1943-1944 will be Loomis Patrick, George E. Rawson, Douglas B. Francis and Mrs. Margaret L. Spear. My congratulations to them all.

State Treasurer Contest

Because I have made several references, in the past, to a Republican candidate for Treasurer whom I had never heard of, I have been deluged with political literature promoting Mr. Edgar Aldro French of Marshfield. In fairness to this gentleman, it should be stated that he has succeeded in building up quite an organization all over the state, headed up by the Hon. John W. Haigis's brother, Frederick C. Haigis of Wellesley. The most prominent Bostonian on the official letterhead is Wendell D. Howie, Secretary of the French for Treasurer Committee. Readers of the Boston Herald Transcript will remember Mr. Howie's writings. It seems that Mr. French is a lawyer, like all the other candidates with the exception of Wallace Stearns, the perennial young Republican, who is still going strong. Mr. French is a man of many and varied interests, and is currently serving on the Coast Guard Auxiliary submarine patrol.

Senator David I. Walsh
There is a priceless item in Drew Pearson's colorful "Washington Merry-Go-Round," dated Aug. 25th. I quote: "Senator Walsh of Massachusetts is now taking rumba lessons." This will be splendid news to the voters of his own state, especially those who are wondering if they are going to freeze this winter on after the shortage of fuel. Senator Walsh has mastered the rumba, perhaps he will find time to study the heating problem, the gasoline situation and other pressing matters.

Alonzo B. Cook
From 1915-1931 the State Auditor was a Republican named Alonzo B. Cook. Nobody in this state had ever served for so long a period in this office. It was with the full knowledge, but without the consent of the Republican leaders that he built up this record. Earnest efforts were made from time to time to remove him from the picture and the papers were quite sympathetic. Nothing doing. Mr. Cook was frequently the first name on the ballot and he catered to certain groups which invariably supported him against any and all opponents. After serving a few terms he had the advantage of being better known than many men in the political arena.

All this is a prelude to the statement that Mr. Cook has finally succeeded in getting his name on the primary ballot in the Eighth Congressional District, where former Senator Angier L. Goodwin of Melrose was reputed to have the G. O. P. nomination in the bag. In fact, there are those who are so unkind as to intimate that this new Eighth District was carved out for Mr. Goodwin's special benefit. However, there are five other lively candidates in this race, including two former Mayors, William A. Hastings of Malden and John J. Irwin of Medford. Two men from Somerville and one from Medford complete the field. This may be a case where one cook, not too many, spoils the broth.

County Commissioner Dog-Fight
A number of my readers have asked me to comment on the fight for County Commissioner and to put in a plug for Charles C. Warren. Sorry. Time out for further study.

Treasurer Takes Over 273 Parcels Of Newton Land

City Treasurer and Collector Clarence C. Colby on Friday recorded at the Registry of Deeds in Cambridge the taking over by the City of Newton of 273 parcels of property for non-payment of taxes. The parcels represented $24,820.49 in unpaid taxes, 179 of them being vacant land and 94 improved property.

The number of parcels taken over by the city last year was 254, and the amount of taxes due on them was $24,492.08.

When the delinquent taxes were advertised in June of this year there were 770 parcels and on June 29 when the city formally took the property there were 375 parcels. The City Treasurer had 60 days in which to record the property taken over by the city.

Owners of the property have two years in which to redeem the parcels by paying the taxes, plus costs and interest.

Garden Parties For War Relief

The fourth in a series of War Relief garden parties was given by Mrs. Sarah S. Stevens at her home, Hickory Cliff, 1190 Boylston st., Newton Upper Falls, Friday afternoon, Aug. 21st.

To this gathering of workers of the Newton Woman's Christian Temperance Union was brought donations of materials to be made into mine-sweeper's mittens, and the garments are urgently needed by the British sufferers, as planned for by the Mass. Federation of Women's Clubs.

Legion Corps in Holyoke Parade

The American Legion Auxiliary Drum and Bugle Corps of Newton Post participated in the parade at the State Convention of the Legion at Holyoke on Saturday.

led by Drum Major Claire Heald, in a new uniform of yellow, black and gold, assisted by Barbara Furbush, baton twirling drum major, in a new uniform of white and gold. They received much applause along the line of march.

Members of the corps also assisted at the awarding of prizes and at the USO dance. The Brockton Post, under the direction of Commander Theodore Chute, presented each of the girls with a box of chocolates. Mrs. Charlotte Heald was in charge of the Newton Corps.

$2,170,277.95 of War Bonds and Stamps Sold

More Satisfactory Showing Needed, Claims State Chairman of War Savings

By ROBERT V. SPENCER

This article is based on figures gathered this week of sales of war bonds and stamps through Newton's core banking institutions and ten postoffices. For many reasons these figures do not present a clear picture of the part Newton people are taking in financing the war. Because of large numbers buying through the business concerns where they are employed in Boston or other communities outside Boston, because of lack of uniformity in keeping records, and because of many purchases by Newton people from outside banking and governmental concerns, figures which would tell exactly how Newton is doing as a city are unobtainable. However, the figures compiled raise a doubt as to the adequacy of Newton's performance so far.

There are other reasons why satisfactory figures are extremely difficult to compile. Adding amount of stamps sold to bonds sold does not present a true picture because stamps are continuously being converted into bonds. All figures are based on sales since July 1, 1941, but the postoffice figures stop July 1, while most of the banks gave figures covering up to Aug. 15 or later. Theoretically, the sale of stamps and bonds by school children and by local industrial concerns are covered by the figures given, but as yet no attempt has been made to check to see how far this is true. The figures are as follows:

Bonds Sold by Banks—
Maturity Value	$2,689,095
Cash Value	1,522,795.25
Sold by Postal Stations
Cash Value	326,231.25
Total value of Bonds sold	$1,849,026.50
Stamps Sold, Banks	85,544.25
Postoffices	235,707.20
Total Stamps sold	$321,251.45

Mr. Richard Doherty, chairman of the State War Savings Committee, in commenting on the figures above, stated that it was his opinion that they did not indicate a satisfactory level of war savings for Newton. By way of comparison he cited Springfield with 150,000 population, which has brought $15,000,000 of war savings. He stated that if Newton were giving as good a performance, in his opinion, the above figures would be at least twice as large.

The writer as well as most readers know that the performance of the country is still below the quotas set by the U. S. Treasury, in order that the war may be as soundly financed as possible. This study checks Newton as one where the people need to dig down deeper. Everyone with a regular income should own some sort of a bond right now; those who do not should get busy immediately. Many more individuals and families, especially those where the breadwinner is not employed by a corporation or concern placing bonds, should join the Ten Percent Club.

Tin Can Salvage Drive In Newton Not In Full Swing

First Week Collection Nets About Two Tons—Improvement Noted

On Tuesday morning a talk with the manager of the city yard at the incinerator revealed that the amount of tin so far collected is a fair showing, but is still below a satisfactory figure. The first week about two tons were collected, but Tuesday it was much better, so that a three and one-half load was sent to the "spotted" car on Albany st., Boston, and quite an amount was left over for the second truckload. Because of vacations and other reasons, many homes have not yet set any prepared tin out for collection on the regular days the city trucks have called. The city has been sending a small truck out for tin in response to telephone calls where restaurants and others have accumulated large amounts of tin ready to turn in. It must be remembered that, due to a fortnightly system of collection, less than half the city has yet been covered.

Evaporated Milk Cans Again

The regulation issued last week omitting evaporated milk cans from the desired list was puzzling. A second visit at the office of the State Salvage Committee revealed the true situation. Tin from these cans is just as serviceable as from other types. The reason for the omission was due to difficulty in opening and cleaning. It is my personal opinion that they should be salvaged, even if it is a bit difficult. A large additional amount of tin can be salvaged in this way and I do not believe that Newton housewives will be afraid of the bother when they understand the facts.

R. V. SPENCER

Named Commander Of County Council

J. Sherman Irving, of 18 Camden rd., Auburndale, past commander of Newton Post, American Legion, was elected commander of the Middlesex County Council of the county causes held at the State Convention in Holyoke over the week-end. He was nominated by Commander Alvin D. Parker of the Newton Post.

John J. Foran, John B. Foley, Charles Coogan, Harry A. McPhee, Arthur A. Hunt and Francis Frazier attended the convention as delegates from the Newton Post, American Legion.

Newton Loses 3000 Voters From List

Women Outnumber Men Registration Shows

Women have taken the lead in the number of voters registered in Newton, the annual revision of the voting lists by the city clerk's department revealed yesterday.

The latest figures also showed that the total number of voters has dropped nearly 3000, as compared with the total after the annual revision last year.

The greatest drop was among the men, evidently due to the fact that so many are in the armed forces and those of them who had not previously registered had little opportunity to do so. Many youths in the Army and Navy who reached their twenty-first birthday while in the service have not been in a position to register as voters.

The total number of voters on the rolls this year is 34,822, of which number 16,314 are men and 18,508 are women. The total after the revision last year was 37,789, of which 19,953 were men and 17,836 were women.

When the scales have turned since last year from a majority of about 2000 men to a similar majority of women. Moreover, many men in the service who are registered voters will not have an opportunity to vote, thereby further increasing the potential women's vote over that of the men.

Charged By Police With Breaking Immigration Law

Frank E. Russo, 35, of 125 Vernon st., Newton, was arrested last Friday by the Newton police and immigration officers on a charge of violating the immigration laws.

Russo originally entered the United States illegally and was deported to Italy. He again returned, it is presumed as a stow-away, and, when caught a second time, was held in New York as an enemy alien, but due to the war it was impossible to deport him. He was released last October on condition that he report periodically to the immigration service.

When he later moved to Newton from Watertown he failed to notify immigration officials of his change of address, but was traced to the Newton address by a Federal officer. After several hours of investigation Sergeants J. P. Purcell and Patrick King of the Newton police and Joseph D. Haley and John T. Lane, agents of the immigration department, located Russo at his place of employment in a Cambridge factory.

After being booked at Newton police headquarters, Russo was taken to the immigration station at East Boston.

Edmund J. Poutas Named Supervisor

James P. Reynolds, Director of Public Welfare, has announced the appointment of Edmund J. Poutas of 28 Clarendon st., Newtonville, to the newly created position of Supervisor of Social Workers in the Division of General Aid of the Public Welfare Department. He will be in charge of the staff of investigators.

Mr. Poutas has served as investigator in the department for 9 years.

Causes Spy Scare By Taking Photos

A man, who was taking photographs in the freight yard of the Boston and Albany Railroad at Newtonville, opposite Crafts st., on Sunday, was the cause of a "spy scare." When Sergeants Patrick King and Philip Purcell, who were sent from police headquarters to the scene, and Patrolmen Raymond Taffe and Lawrence Dungan arrived in a cruising car they questioned the man who told them he was an amateur photographer and was unaware of the emergency regulations which prohibit the taking of pictures of railroad property.

The man was not held by the police but they confiscated his camera which will be turned over to F. B. I. officials.

Newton Citizens Home On Liner Gripsholm

Land in New York Monday from Japan With Many American Evacuees

The arrival of the liner Gripsholm in New York Monday, with many Americans aboard who had been interned by the Japanese, brought happiness to three Newton families, ending months of anxiety concerning the fate of their relatives.

The passengers included Dr. William Cochran, whose wife and four children reside with his mother-in-law, Mrs. John E. Williams, at 152 Grove st., Auburndale; Miss Helen A. McClure, sister of Miss Helen A. McClure, of 26 Kingston st., Newton Highlands, and Mr. and Mrs. John Kenneth Caldwell, parents of Mrs. John Chester of 15 Bow rd., Newton Centre.

A letter received from Dr. Cochran by air mail from Rio told his wife of his experiences at the hands of the Japanese since the outbreak of war with America. He was superintendent of a hospital at Paoing Foo, China, for five years under Jap control, and immediately after the Japanese attack on Pearl Harbor he was placed under arrest by the Japs.

He stated that he was taken to police headquarters and kept for two days and nights and questioned at length. He was then returned to his home and kept in solitary confinement for a month.

"I was courteously treated, but was continually interviewed," he wrote.

Mrs. Cochran, who had gone to New York to meet him, left China with their four children 20 months ago after the State Department ordered the evacuation of women and children. The children are John W., 11; James B. and Robert C., nine-year-old twins, and Ann E., five.

Dr. and Mrs. Cochran were born in China, where their parents were Presbyterian missionaries. Mrs. Cochran's father, Rev. John E. Williams, was killed at the University of Nanking in the Chinese Army rebellion of 1927. He was one of the founders of the university.

Caldwell, who was consul-general at Tientsin, is a nephew of Mrs. Williams, mother of Mrs. Cochran. His son-in-law, John Chester, is connected with the Associated Press. The Chesters have gone to New York to meet him.

Miss McClure was a Congregational missionary in China.

TRIBUTE TO GEN. MACARTHUR

By James E. Barrett

Who does not love MacArthur—
For his gallantry, his grit—
His keen inspired perception
The drive with which he hits?

Who does not feel deep righteous pride
That he is one of us Plain spoken—honest—tried and true
Full worthy of his trust?

Who would not feel the keenest pain
Nor shed a private tear—Should 'gainst him treachery be found Amongst his brothers here?

Who would not blush with rightful shame
Nor hide his wretched face—
Should disloyalty to our general
To his door be traced?

Yet facts belie our spoken praise
For vipers spawn about his tent
Their presence known—but duty clear
His heart must oft be sorely rent.

Sadly he identifies—his brothers
in the past
Poised to strike his naked breast
Ah, more welcome were an asp!
Enemies there are indeed
Or various types and hues
The finger points and identifies
Your neighbors—yes—and you.

You who dole out miserly
Your nickels and your dimes Grudgingly supporting—
The effort of our times!

You who reap dishonest pay
For careless shoddy work
Be you artisan or labourer
Or e'en the lowest clerk!

You who smirkingly secure Feed your labour's bounteous tough
And do much less than half you should
And think that is enough!

You who with magnanimity Dispense our government's taxes Sadly he perceives to be True champions of the Axis.

You others still who rob the till
By petty cheap devices
Are lice upon lice of those above Intent on stealing slices.

Betrayal is a bitter drink—
Think—ban it from our sod—
Give glory to our General—Ourselves—our flag—our God!

SALUTE TO HEROES MONTH

All theatres in the United States have joined hands to raise "ONE BILLION DOLLARS" in September.

This is not just a theatre drive but a drive that takes in all branches of business from the big factories to the little stores around the corner. The quota set by the Treasury Department is $1,000,000,000 or $33,000,000 per day. Both theatres in the city of Newton are ready to give their support toward this big drive. You can do your share by buying War Bonds and more Bonds and Stamps during this month of the drive.

September has been named "Salute to Our Heroes Month." Just think of all the casualties that are taking place every day thousands of miles from where we sit. They died for us. They gave up a job, a home, a life. Little enough we can give in time, in effort, in money, to honor their memory. Let's us keep the home front fighting with the buying of more War Bonds. The Paramount Theatre, Newton is an official issuing agent for United States War Bonds. Bonds issued while you wait, day or night, including Sundays, Saturdays and holidays. Buy your War Bond on September 1st, at your nearest theatre and give a salute to our heroes.

Issue Regulations For Xmas Mail To U.S. Forces Abroad

The following regulations and instructions concerning Christmas Mail for members of the armed forces abroad have been released by John W. Gleavy, Acting Postmaster of Boston. Arrangements have been made by the Post Office Department in cooperation with the War and Navy Departments for the acceptance of Christmas parcels for the armed forces serving OUTSIDE the continental United States.

The instructions as herein set forth should be strictly observed in order to assure Christmas delivery:

Time of Mailing—Christmas parcels and Christmas cards should be mailed during the period beginning October 1 and ending November 1, 1942. Gifts or cards mailed after November 1st cannot be assured of Christmas delivery. Each gift parcel should be endorsed, "Christmas Parcel."

Size and Weight—In view of the urgent need for shipping space to transport materials directly essential to the war effort and in view of the large number of parcels that will be mailed during this period for Christmas, it has been found necessary to limit the weight and measurements of all parcels. While the present limit of 11 pounds in weight or 18 inches in length or 42 inches in length and girth combined shall be retained, the War and Navy Departments urgently request that all Christmas parcels be voluntarily kept to the size of an ordinary shoe box and weighing not more than 6 pounds. All members of the armed forces abroad are amply supplied with food and clothing and the public is urged not to include such matter in gift parcels.

Not more than one Christmas parcel or package shall be accepted for mailing in any one week when sent by or on behalf of the same person or concern to or for the same addressee.

Preparation of Christmas Parcels—Owing to the great distance this mail must be transported and the handling and any storage it must undergo, it is absolutely essential that all articles be packed in substantial boxes or containers and be covered with wrappers of sufficient strength not only to resist pressure of other mail in the same sack, but to withstand the weight of other sacks of mail, which in the long transit may be piled thereon.

Furthermore, as each parcel is subject to censorship, delay in handling may be minimized by securing the covering of the parcel so as to permit ready inspection of the contents.

Use of Money Orders—In transmitting gifts of money to members of the armed forces the public is requested to utilize postal money orders. With regard to actual cash remittances, patrons are informed that at many places
where such forces are stationed there is a local prohibition against the importation of United States money, and it could not be used
if received. However, domestic postal money orders can be cashed
at A. P. O.'s wherever they are located, and they are paid in local foreign currency at the rate of exchange in effect on the date the orders are presented.

No.—(Insert No.)
c/o Postmaster,
San Francisco, Calif.

Units located within the continental limits of the United States may be addressed direct, using name, rank, organization and location. For the purpose of these instructions Alaska is included in the term "Outside the continental United States."

Postage—Postage must be fully prepaid, the rate on parcels of fourth-class matter, that is, parcels exceeding 8 ounces in weight, being the zone rate applicable from the post office where mailed to the post office in care of which the parcels are addressed. For example, parcels addressed in care of the Postmaster, New York, N. Y., and mailed from the Boston Post District would cost 8c for one pound, 10c for 2 pounds, 11c for 3 pounds, etc. Parcels addressed c/o Postmaster, San Francisco, Calif., and mailed in the Boston Post District would cost 15c for one pound, 26c for 2 pounds, 37c for 3 pounds, etc.
Packages weighing less than 8 ounces may be mailed at 1-2c for each two ounces, except in the case of books, on which the rate is 1c for each two ounces. Parcels containing only books and conforming to the requirements prescribed therefor are accepted at the special rate of 3 cents a pound.

Stickers or labels resembling postage stamps are not permissible on outside of parcels.

Permissible Additions—Correspondence of any nature cannot be enclosed in parcels. However, in addition to the name and address of the sender, which is required, inscriptions such as "Merry Christmas," "Please do not open until Christmas," "Happy New Year," "With best wishes," and the like may be placed on the covering of the parcel in such manner as not to interfere with the address, or on a card inclosed therewith. Books may bear simple dedicatory inscriptions not of a nature of personal correspondence.

Insurance and Register Mail—Mailers should insure their Christmas gifts of more than ordinary value.
Articles of considerable value, especially those of small size, should be sealed and sent as first-class registered mail. Rates for registered and insured mail are the same as those applying to delivery in this country.

Use of Money Orders—In transmitting gifts of money to members of the armed forces the public is requested to utilize postal money orders. With regard to actual cash remittances, patrons are informed that at many places
where such forces are stationed
there is a local prohibition against
the importation of United States
money, and it could not be used
if received. However, domestic postal money orders can be cashed
at A. P. O.'s wherever they are located, and they are paid in local foreign currency at the rate of exchange in effect on the date the
orders are presented.

THE HOME FRONT

Church Socials Get Sugar
New England's many annual harvest suppers, in some places century-old institutions, will not be sugarless after all.

Eldon C. Shoup, N. E. Regional Rationing Executive, announced this week that religious, civic, educational, charitable, benevolent, and social welfare organizations may obtain allotments of sugar to serve complete meals.
However, socials with ice cream and cookies, and "munchings" at bridge parties are out.

That means a bright light to the many organizations throughout New England who had visions of preparing sugarless meals when the fund-raising supper session arrives, and it's not far off.

Allotments are permitted if the following requirements are met:
1. The meals, a full hot supper, must be for the relief of civil

In Hot Water

Thinking an electric iron would be a good substitute for a hot water bottle, a housewife in Helsingfors, Finland, placed it in her bed and turned on the current, but her inventiveness brought unexpected recognition by the city. She forgot about the iron, the bed caught fire, and she was fined for wasting electricity.

One-Eyed Presidents

Two recent Presidents were one-eyed. Theodore Roosevelt, who had weak eyes since childhood, lost the sight of one eye from an injury received in a boxing contest in the White House. President Woodrow Wilson became blind in his right eye from a retinal hemorrhage.

YOUNG AMERICA BUYS WAR STAMPS AT MOVIES

Mrs. James H. O'Rourke, vice-chairman of the Newton Red Cross Staff Assistance Corps, reported that Sunday afternoon was a red letter day at the War Stamp Booth in the Paramount Theatre in Newton.

Mrs. O'Rourke says that with movie was thronged with youngsters who came to spend 11c of their precious allowance for the purchase of war stamps. The appearance of the booth was a success, and the anticipation of sodas or candy afterwards. When they saw a War Stamp Booth in the lobby, the greater number bought War Stamps with the money that was to go for sweets.
A total of $720 was sold in 10c
War Stamps, the oldest purchaser being 12 years.

With young America responding to the country's call for sacrifice and leading the way, the War

Not Too Much Paint

Home owners who are planning any outdoor painting during cold weather should bear in mind that a too heavy application of paint will result in a wrinkled surface.
Even though the surface may be dry when the paint is applied, cold or damp weather will retard drying.
An addition of turpentine will reduce this tendency.

Number of Tons in Hay Stack

In estimating the number of tons of hay or straw in a stack, multiply the length by the width at the top by one-fourth the distance over the stack. To get the number of tons, divide the multiplied product by 600 if the stack is well settled, or by 650 to 700 if the stack is new or not well settled.

CANDIDATE FOR STATE OFFICE SERVES ON SUBMARINE PATROL

Between weekly trips to sea as a member of the Coast Guard Auxiliary submarine patrol, Attorney Edgar Adol French of Marshallfield was in New Bedford today campaigning for the Republican nomination as State Treasurer.

On his own boat, Mr. French gives his services . . . in the submarine patrol. Sometimes this requires 24 hours of consecutive patrolling in order to fit in with the schedule of coastal protection.
He is a local Republican whom he visited in his first campaign trip.

Patrol duty and gasoline rationing have shaped his campaign program for him, Mr. French declared, announcing that the New Bedford visit was one of a number of regional conferences he is arranging. At these regional meetings he hopes to discuss campaign prospects with workers from an entire area in one-day stops.

Describing himself as "a country lawyer with broad financial experiences," Mr. French reminded New Bedford friends that all other Republican candidates for State Treasurer come from the Boston area. Mr. French has law offices in Attleboro and Scituate.

In his visit here today, the Republican candidate was accompanied by Edward P. Gilmartin of Ashmont, his campaign manager, who was secretary of the Haigis Associates in previous elections.

X-ray for Sick Spuds

By using a portable fluoroscope the heart of a growing potato or apple can be studied as easily as a human heart can be seen by x-ray.
The causes of hollow heart in potatoes are being studied and attempts are being made to learn the causes of such things as core flush and water core in apples.

Lovable Land

Little Uruguay has been described as a "lovable" land with pleasant hills, valleys, rivers, woods, undulating grassy lands and a climate never too hot or too cold. From the fact that it lies east of the Rio de la Plata it was formerly called the "Banda Oriental" or East Bank, and even now the people call themselves
"Orientales."

Insulate Playroom Ceiling

So the children can play in the basement game-room without disturbance to the sleeping quarters above, the ceiling of the basement room should be covered with insulation board tile. New ceiling tile possesses acoustical qualities which will tend to prevent sound from going to the rooms above.

IT'S AS EASY AS THAT TO MAKE TELEPHONE CALLS BRIEFER

That's one way you can do your bit for the war every day.

YOU CAN DO still more by reducing non-essential long distance calls.

ANOTHER WAY you can help relieve congestion is standing-by at your telephone when you are waiting for a long distance call to be completed.

YOU CAN SAVE valuable telephone time by leaving messages when the party you're calling is not available. Call-backs take telephone time that is needed for speeding the war.

YOUR HELP is urgently needed because the telephone must give war needs first call.

PLEASE think before you telephone. Do you have to make the call? If it is essential will you please make it as brief as possible?

NEWTON
In The Past

55 YEARS AGO

Newton Graphic, August 20, 1887

The electric lights in Newton Lower Falls went out suddenly for a couple of hours Tuesday night, owing to the fact that a house that was being moved had come in contact with the wires and broke the circuit. The company repaired the damage as soon as they could get up there, but the work necessarily took some time.

If the amount of money taken by the Indian doctors, who visited Newton Lower Falls Wednesday evening, was in proportion to the size of the crowd which gathered, they must have reaped a rich harvest from their labors in this vicinity.

One car on the seven o'clock train from Needham was thrown from the tracks at the junction near Cook st., Newton Highlands, on Thursday morning, but fortunately no one was injured. The circuit trains were delayed about two hours.

50 YEARS AGO

Newton Graphic, August 19, 1892

Business is booming at the Nantam mills. Two sets of hands are employed and the mills are run day and night.

The store in Plummer's Block, Auburndale, formerly occupied by Charles Ring, is being fitted up for Mr. John McCammon of Newton, who will shortly open a boot and shoe store there. The work is being done by H. H. Hunt of West Newton.

One of Mr. Ellis' horses with an ice cart took a spurt on Beacon st., Newton Centre, Monday morning, stirring up Mr. O. F. Smith's flower garden and leaving him more ice than he wanted for that day.

A large spring was discovered this week on the U. S. Fireworks Co. plant which promises to make an additional attraction in Upper Falls. The water has been analyzed by a prominent chemist and found to contain great medicinal properties. The spring was discovered by workmen while digging on the place.

25 YEARS AGO

Newton Graphic, August 17, 1917

Company C, which has been in camp for the past two or three weeks on Clifton Field, Newtonville, broke camp this morning about ten o'clock, and amid the plaudits of a large number of residents, marched to Newtonville square, where Company F, of Waltham, was met and the two companies took electric cars for Newton Highlands, where connections were made with the Boston & Worcester line. They will reach the Framingham camp ground this noon, where their stay is indefinite.

NEWTON RED CROSS APPEALS FOR AID FOR SERVICE MEN'S FAMILIES

Mrs. C. W. Clark, of the Newton Red Cross Home Service Bureau, has issued an appeal for two large-sized cribs and mattresses for children of Newton men who are serving in the armed forces of the United States.

One of the children is an attractive little boy, one year old, the son of a soldier now serving with the A. A. F. somewhere abroad. The mother is making every effort to keep up their small apartment, especially as the soldier writes home frequently that he hopes the family will be able to live as normally as when he was at home before enlistment, at which time he was a good wage-earner, and able to take care of his family quite adequately. The baby boy is quite active and strong, and has outgrown his small crib. The mother would be very grateful to have a large-sized crib so that she will not have to worry about an accident to him, caused by a tumble from the small crib.

The other child is a one-and-a-half-year-old boy, healthy, attractive and playful, the son of a Newton man who enlisted in the Marines because he felt it was his patriotic duty to do so. His wife was willing to have him go, indeed was rightly proud of him. She is a good mother, is self-reliant, economical and a neat homemaker. Another baby is expected in December, and she would like the large crib for the one-and-a-half-year-old older as the small crib must go to the new baby. This household can also use a small coal stove, kitchen utensils and bedding.

Mrs. Clark can be reached at Lasell 6000, in the Home Service Bureau of the Newton Red Cross, at 21 Foster st., Newtonville.

KNOWLEDGE CHANGES FOOD HABITS

Increased information on nutrition has greatly stimulated the consumption of protective foods. The most important of these foods are milk and its products.

Two decades ago, in 1921, production of milk in the United States totaled about 78 billions of pounds for the year. Of this about three billions were fed to livestock, leaving about 75 billions of pounds of milk and its products for human consumption. With a little over 107 million people the per capita consumption of milk in all its forms was about 699 pounds. Of this about 424 pounds was used in the form of manufactured products and about 275 pounds as fluid milk and cream.

Twenty years later, in 1941, production of milk in the United States totaled 115½ billions of pounds. Of this about three billions were fed to live stock and about three billions were purchased in various forms of manufactured products for export and use by the armies of the United Nations. The remaining 109½ billion pounds were available for consumption by the 131 million people. This meant an average consumption of 834 pounds of milk per person in its various form. Of this approximately 489 pounds were used in the various products of milk, such as butter, cheese, ice cream and concentrated milk products.

In other words the increase in consumption of the manufactured products of milk amounted to about 65 pounds of milk per capita. Outstanding increases are found in cheese and ice cream where per capita consumption has increased about 36 per cent and 86 per cent respectively. In the case of fluid milk and cream consumption, the increase has been from 275 pounds per person to about 347 pounds per person or more than 26 per cent.

With the National Nutrition Program spotlighting information concerning food values, changes in eating habits are taking place more rapidly than ever before. Improved food habits formed as a result of this knowledge are making a major contribution toward the building of the vigor and vitality of our armed forces, our industrial workers, and our citizens as a whole.

ARMY EMERGENCY RELIEF

The Army is preparing for the annual drive for membership in the Army Emergency Relief in the traditional policy of caring for its own. This campaign will be conducted throughout the Army only, between September 25th and November 5th. There will be no public drive for funds during 1942.

The War Department is encouraging all military personnel to contribute. Participation is voluntary and is not required in order to secure aid. Funds have been raised in many ways. Special events conducted by the Red Sox, Braves, Suffolk Downs, Boston Garden, Revere Racing Association, Rockingham and Narragansett Parks, Hollywood Caravan, Taunton dog track and many others have brought in nearly $200,000 for Army Emergency Relief. Irving Berlin's Army show, "This is the Army", could play indefinitely on Broadway, but in the interests of morale as well as the Army Emergency Relief, it will make a tour about the third week in October. This show is netting the Army Emergency Relief approximately $40,000 a week.

When Major General Irving J. Phillipson, Executive Director of the Emergency Relief, was in Boston recently, he complimented Major General Sherman Miles, Commanding General of the First Service Command, on the excellent relief setup in New England. General Phillipson promised: "Everybody in New England who is eligible for relief shall get it." The principal object of the Army Emergency Relief is to collect and disburse funds to meet emergencies and special cases arising from exigencies due to the war and which require prompt attention. The unprecedented expansion of the Army has caused the anticipation of an enormous increase in cases of temporary financial distress which in ordinary times has been adequately handled by existing agencies. As a result the Army Emergency Relief was born.

If a soldier needs help for himself or for his dependents, he should apply to the Section of the Army Emergency Relief at his post, camp or station. He should give the name and mailing address of the dependent or dependents for whom he is seeking assistance. The dependents themselves may apply for this assistance to the Army Emergency Relief Section at the nearest Army post, camp or station, or to the First Service Command headquarters, 808 Commonwealth Avenue, Boston. Care should be exercised so that the soldier and his dependents are not both applying for relief.

THE CHANGING SCENE

Auto thrill shows are included in the ODT ban which also covers automobile racing. It was pointed out this week. To collectors, wire cutters, production of which has stopped for the duration, dry cleaners and laundries may require a deposit of from one to five cents per hanger. . . . Extensive readjustment of the power expansion program is being carried out. Work on some 75 projects, both public and private, is being halted in whole or in part, and 28 Federal Government projects will be continued under low preference ratings or none. . . . N. E. War Games Open This Friday

Federal Troops and State Guards Plan Maneuvers

The actual maneuver of New England's war game will get under way early Friday (Aug. 28). Flying columns, speeding trucks, rapid movement of troops will be common sights over New England highways. If you see troop-filled trucks and scores of Army motorcycles whizzing past, don't rush to the telephone. Keep in mind that war-game exercises are on—through Sunday (Aug. 30).

Federal troops located in New England and State Guardsmen will be moving in many parts of New England. They will be doing a whole series of things at once. They will develop procedures for defending New England against enemy agent activities and against raiders. They will be getting valuable training. They will ascertain the mobility of the forces available. They will test the communications net, and the coordination of the agencies concerned.

The troops and guardsmen will be kept on the move through the week. Theoretical situations issued through the headquarters of Major General Sherman Miles, Commanding General of the First Service Command. The exercises will be operated under the direction of General Miles.

As the maneuvers are purely military in purpose, only military personnel is involved at this time. Sometime during the fall, exercises will be held on a much wider scale to include civilian organizations as well as federal and state military units.

V-Mail Service To Troops Extended

Facilities for photographing and reproducing "V-mail" to and from American soldiers and sailors in the United States and the British Isles, Australia, India, Hawaii and other points are now in operation, the Post Office Department said this week in an announcement that the service, inaugurated June 15, is now out of the experimental stage.

"V-mail" service provides for the use of patrons of a special letter sheet form which is a combination of letter and envelope. The forms are written and mailed by the sender in the usual manner. Letters are photographed on micro-film by automatic machines at the rate of 2,000 to 2,500 per hour and the film rolls containing 1,500 letters each are transmitted to destinations. Patrons are warned that only the inner or letter side of the letters is photographed, and should be careful to show the complete address of the person to whom the message is sent in the panel provided therefor above the space for the message.

Because of the small space taken up by the rolls of film, they can often be carried on ferry planes or bombers. Every pound of weight which can be saved on air transports overseas, said the department, means that an equivalent amount of weight can be allotted to vital military material. In recognition of this, and in an effort to insure delivery of mail to as many men as possible at overseas destinations when space is limited, the War and Navy Departments have directed that "V-mail" be given priority in dispatch over all other classes—including air mail—when transportation facilities under control of these departments are used.

"V-mail" letter sheets have been distributed at all post offices, and have been provided all military and naval personnel at overseas points through Army and Navy post offices and military channels. Private firms and individuals have also been permitted by the Post Office Department to reproduce the letter sheets. The sheets also will be available soon to all stores selling stationery.

Brockton Fair To Open On Sept. 13

BROCKTON, Aug. 26—Replete with fun features but "earthy" as over this city's third wartime Brockton Fair since its 1874 founding will again bring its visitors a cross-section of agricultural New England when it opens here Sunday, Sept. 13, for the annual seven-day run.

Traditionally the most rustic of Massachusetts exhibitions, the 1942 event, Secretary Frank H. Kingman emphasized today, will maintain that distinction in the face of a modernized entertainment program that includes parliament racing, exciting car shows and exhibits, midway thrills and a hilarious "Gay Nineties Revue".

On the strength of the early entries reaching his office, ranging from home grown pumpkins to milking goats and dairy cows, Kingman predicted that farm exhibits in most departments will hit record numbers despite farm labor problems and transportation difficulties.

As an example, the Brockton Fair head disclosed that 89 head of pure-bred cattle, including the first best animals, will be shown in almost a decade, have already been nominated by breeders from four states. Others, he said, have indicated they will substantially increase the entry rolls before the deadline.

The poultry show, shown to be the most popular made by Boy Scouts at the 1941 fair, will again be a stand-out feature, while the 4-H Club Dairy calf show, old-fashioned pulling contests for horses and oxen, home-canning contests and displays, and other events will combine to stress the agricultural side of the fair.

Since 1874, the Brockton event has been held during two American wars, the Spanish-American conflict of 1898, and the World War of 1917.

RED CROSS HOME NURSING CLASSES INCREASING

American housewives, their children, and even their husbands, are fast becoming proficient at giving bed baths, taking temperatures and carrying out doctors' orders. At a recent meeting of the Red Cross National Council on Home Nursing, it was reported that 398,214 Americans had received Home Nursing certificates during the past year, an increase of 447 per cent over the preceding year.

Mrs. Charles J. A. Wilson, chairman of Home Nursing for the Newton Red Cross, said that since Pearl Harbor, 381 certificates have been given to Newton adults and 106 to children who completed the school Home Nursing course.

Sallies Open Club For Service Men

The Red Shield Service Men's Club at The Argonne Lodge, 2 Bulfinch st., Boston, will be opened for use of the fighting forces of Uncle Sam, at noon, Tuesday, Sept. 1st, according to Colonel Richard Fitzgerald Stretton, Chief Executive of The Salvation Army in New England. Simultaneously with the opening of the recreation center will be the turning over for exclusive use of service men, a large part of The Argonne Lodge sleeping accommodations, which have been renovated and made extremely inviting.

State and city officials will join with friends of The Salvation Army who make up its advisory boards and volunteer workers in the approaching Greater Boston Annual Maintenance Appeal at the ceremony. They will greet soldiers and sailors and other service men as they are introduced to their new and spacious recreational center, just one block from Scollay and Bowdoin squares and a short walk from North Station. The dedicatory program is planned and sponsored by The Greater Boston Advisory Board, whose chairman is John E. Wilson, president of Boston Rotary, according to Colonel Stretton.

"The need for more sleeping accommodations for our soldiers and sailor boys, the need of more recreational activities near Scollay square, where hundreds of our boys gather each day and night, has been pointed out from many quarters. We investigated and found that there was a need. We immediately set to work and, by giving more and more beds for service men at The Argonne Lodge, and now making a part of that lodge exclusively for men on leave. It has been refitted, repainted," said Colonel Stretton.

He continued: "Then to add to the Home Away from Home picture, we will have ready for use on Sept. 1, a wonderful place for recreation at The Argonne Lodge. At the end of each day a man that is staying over night, just steps on an elevator at the play, goes to his private room, where he can make a genuine rest and have good use of his days away from duty spent in Boston."

"We have the support of John E. Wilson, who is chairman of our Greater Boston Advisory Board, as well as every member of that group in this move, together with William G. O'Hare, Executive Secretary of the Boston Welfare Department, who is to head the Greater Boston Annual Appeal of The Salvation Army to be held in the fall. Scores of the volunteer workers of that campaign will attend the opening ceremonies at the club."

Colonel Stretton added that the inauguration of The Salvation Army night patrol of Downtown Boston will come with the opening of the club, followed soon by inauguration of the Mobile Canteen Service that will take cheer, coffee, doughnuts, other snacks, together with reading and writing materials to Uncle Sam's forces, at isolated posts in Metropolitan Boston.

The Colonel explains that any patrol service is to pick up any lonesome service man, any boy with no place to go,

Tells How to Avoid Bike Accidents

Riding a bike in these days of tire and gasoline rationing may be patriotic, but it won't make a hero of the rider who is killed or injured through carelessness. So says the Newton Graphic, in calling attention to the fact that the revival of the bicycle has brought a corresponding increase in the number of road accidents involving bicyclists.

As a safety measure, the Red Cross has prepared the following list of "don'ts" which, if observed by a bicyclist, should help to reduce the number of accidents. They are:

Don't ride a mechanically defective bicycle; loose handlebars or faulty brakes may lead to your downfall.
Don't ride a bike in traffic until you have sufficient practice to give you self-confidence; even then, riding in congested areas is risky.
Don't zig-zag over the road; keep to the right.
Don't violate traffic regulations; the rules for motorists apply to bicyclists, too.
Don't ride after dark unless your bike is equipped with a headlight and a tail reflector.
Don't speed on wet pavements—you may skid into a car.
Don't stunt or race in traffic.
Don't "hitch" on to moving automobiles or trucks.
And, unless you have a "bicycle built for two," don't carry a second passenger and foolishly endanger two lives.

The close of the program of the playground season was celebrated Monday at Boyd Park by a Field Day of exhibition and sports.

THE CAMBRIDGE SUMMER THEATRE

The Cambridge Summer Theatre doesn't want its patrons to stop laughing, so they will follow "Ten Nights in a Barroom" with George S. Kaufman and Moss Hart's rib-tickler, "You Can't Take It With You." Fred Stone will be the star, and his daughter Paula will play an important role. The play is one of the best of the Kaufman-Hart collaborations, and tells the story of a slightly-screwball-type of family who do only what they want to do, and do that with a vengeance, so to speak. The grandfather stayed on the elevator taking him up to his office one day, came down again, and hasn't been there since. Fred Stone, who was a typewriter at her home by mistake. The granddaughter studies ballet from an eccentric Russian, her husband is a communist, her father makes fireworks in the cellar, the ice man wanders in and decides to remain indefinitely, and only one member of the family dares to pretend sanity. She works in a Wall Street firm, falls in love with the boss' son, invites his family home to dinner, and chaos results. It is all in good humor, however, and carries a bit of philosophy as well. Lionel Barrymore starred in the motion picture version of this play which ran years on Broadway and boasted of five road companies touring the country at one time.

Fred Stone, who left home at the age of nine to become a circus acrobat, is one of the best-loved men in the American theatre. Actors, Directors and audiences alike appreciate his presence. Paula, who is his second daughter, is not the only member of his family "in the profession" for at one time Mrs. Stone, Carol, Paula, and Dorothy were all appearing with Fred in "The Stepping Stones." Fred Stone, himself, has taken part in every kind of vaudeville and musical comedy and once played one of two Top-sys in "Double Tom." Those were the days when the most important part of a road show was to have the actors parade into town. Dave Montgomery was Fred's vaudeville partner from 1894 to 1917, when he died. The two began their fabulously long partnership at the old B. F. Keith Theatre in Boston. "Jack O'Lantern," "The Red Mill," "The Wizard of Oz," and "Chin-Chin" (from which originated the phrase "Very Good, Eddie" starred Fred Stone, and the motion pictures in which he played included "Alice Adams," "His American Wife," and "The Trail of the Lonesome Pine." Recently he has toured stage theatres and revived "Lightnin'." In 1928 he had both legs broken in an airplane crash, wired pal Will Rogers "Come and see me, I'm in a grand show called 'Plaster of Paris' and am the only one in the cast!" When his doctor called one day Fred was dancing around on crutches. Then, in 1930, he danced again on the stage in "Ripples."

At the Cambridge Summer Theatre, Robert E. Perry will direct Mr. Stone, Paula, and the resident company in "You Can't Take It With You." Mr. Perry will head the cast to include Mary Barthel-Kanasireff, Nancy Duncan, Allen mess, William Mendrek, Louise Tower, and Charles Bell.

What About Advertising?

In 1917 during the last war, this group continued to advertise their products and services:

Sunkist Oranges
Eastman Kodak
Coca-Cola

Phoenix Hosiery

and many others

This group began new advertising ventures in 1917:

This group quit advertising in 1917:

Some tried to stage comebacks later. They spent a lot of money trying to recapture public fancy, but were unable to do so. Their effort was wasted because new and aggressive companies had moved in and won the public through advertising.
